HIS EXCELLENCY
THE MOST REVEREND
GEORGE L. LEECH, D.D., J.C.D.

SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS
THE REVEREND WALTER H. SHAULL

1963 again summoned to Rome the hierarchy of the Catholic world for the Ecumenical Council. His Holiness, Pope Paul VI, extends a heart-warming welcome to His Excellency, our Bishop, George L. Leech.

Reverend Leo N. Bierster,
Principal

Extending A York Catholic Welcome!

In November, His Holiness Pope Paul VI named Rev. Joseph T. Daley, vice-rector of St. Charles Borromeo Seminary, Phila., Pa., to be Titular Bishop of Barca and Auxiliary to Bishop Leech. Bishop Daley was consecrated by Archbishop J. J. Krol in Philadelphia January 7, 1964.

MOST REV. JOSEPH T. DALEY, D.D.
Auxiliary Bishop of Harrisburg

With gratitude the seniors pay tribute to Father Leo N. Bierster, the immediate supervisor of York Catholic High School. An understanding principal, who appreciates the needs of modern Catholic youth, urges his students to make use of their opportunities for self-development.

REVEREND HUGH A. OVERBAUGH
Chaplain

Reverend Hugh A. Overbaugh received his assignment as Chaplain at York Catholic High School, replacing Father Miller, within a few days of Bishop Daley's appointment.

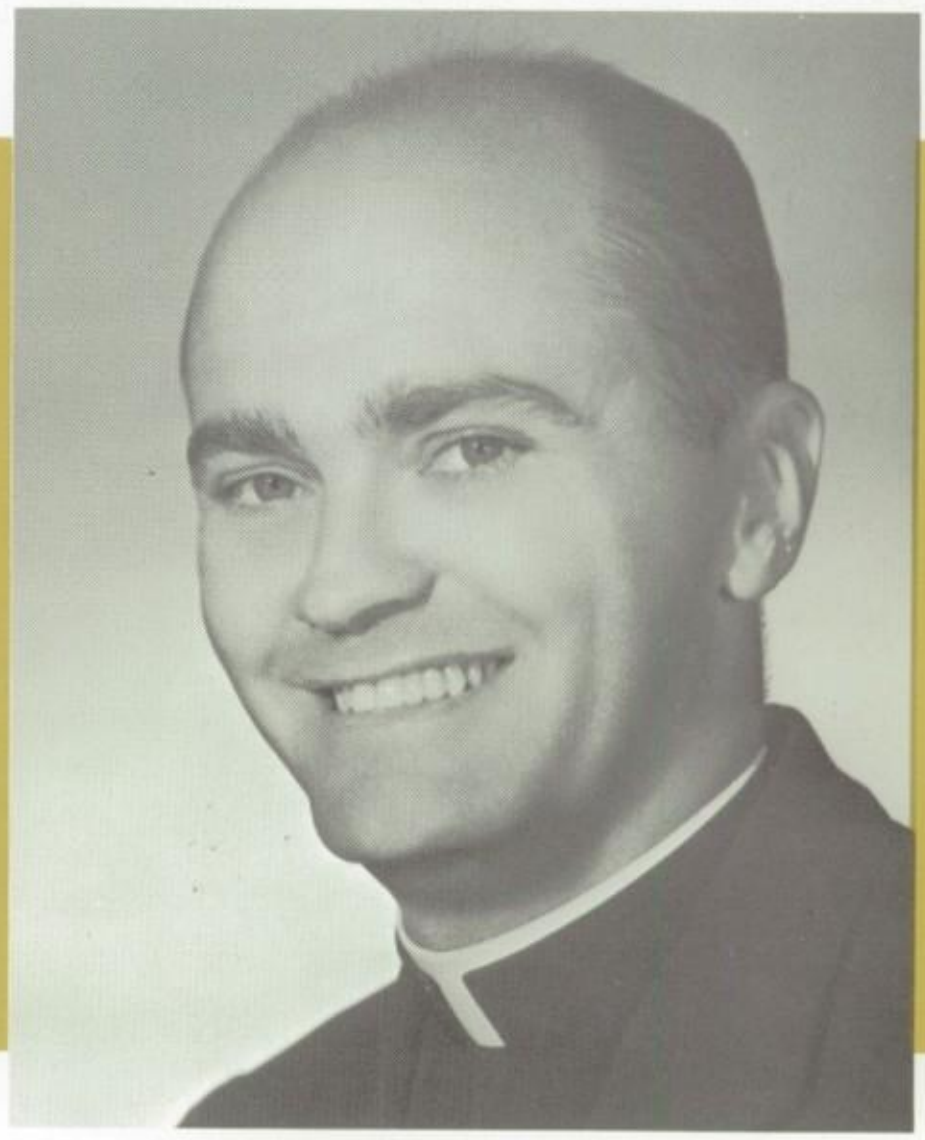
Father Miller confers with Father Kenneth Lawrence, Father Thomas McLernon, Father Stephen Rolko, and Father Ronald Ingalls, who give their priestly time weekly to religious Instruction.

Holiness Befits Your House, O Lord, for Length of Days



Father Paul Miller, our Chaplain and Guidance Counselor, is faithfully concerned with the individual needs of all the students. Confession and private conferences enable us to reorganize and solve our problems. Father deserves our heartfelt thanks and appreciation.

Early December took Father Miller to Trinity High School, but York Catholic' will ever cherish him in memory.

York Catholic High School Faculty

Christian education is the important responsibility of our Faculty. It includes the task of directing the individual student, intellectually, mentally, physically, and, especially, spiritually. The Student Body feels assured that they have the whole-hearted assistance of a faculty who are genuinely interested in their welfare.

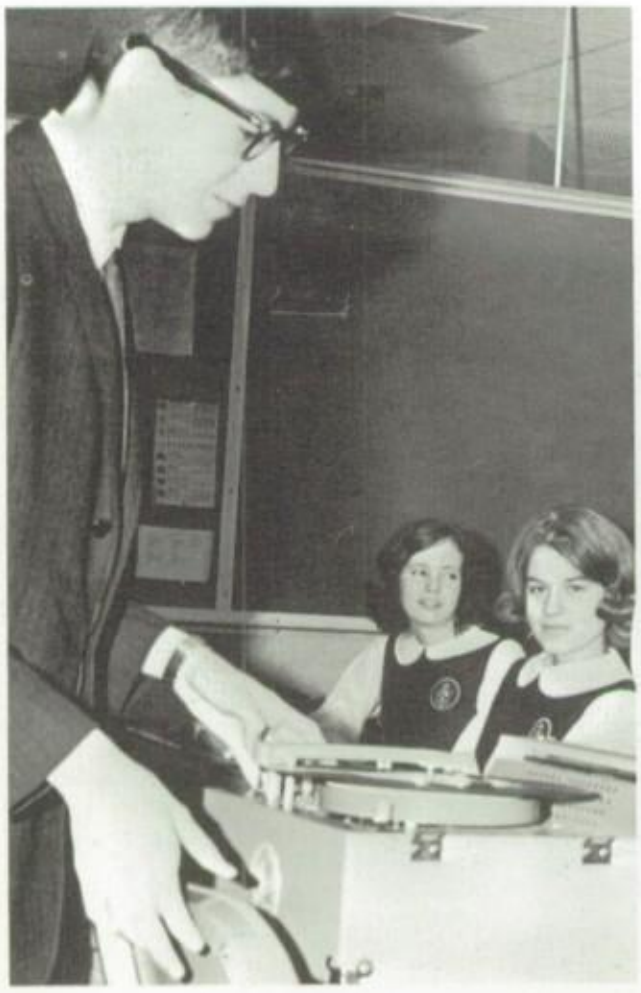
TEACHERS AND STUDIES

SISTER MARITA DENISE, I.H.M.
French 1,2: World History; Student Council.

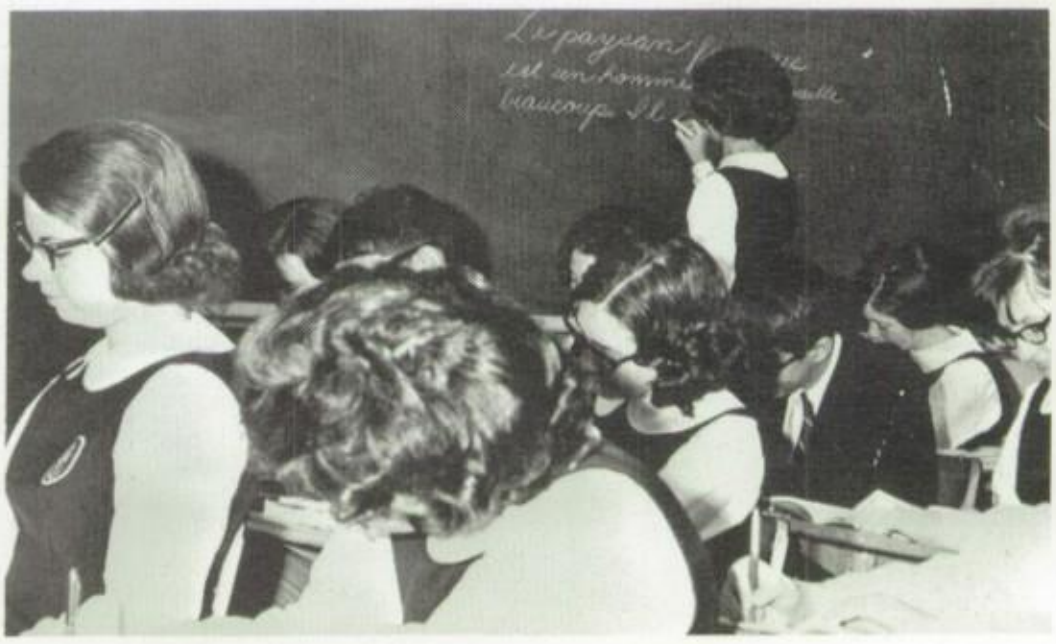
Sister Marita Denise is intent on the observations her class of French II makes as the audio-recorder provides excellence in pronunciation and interpretation.

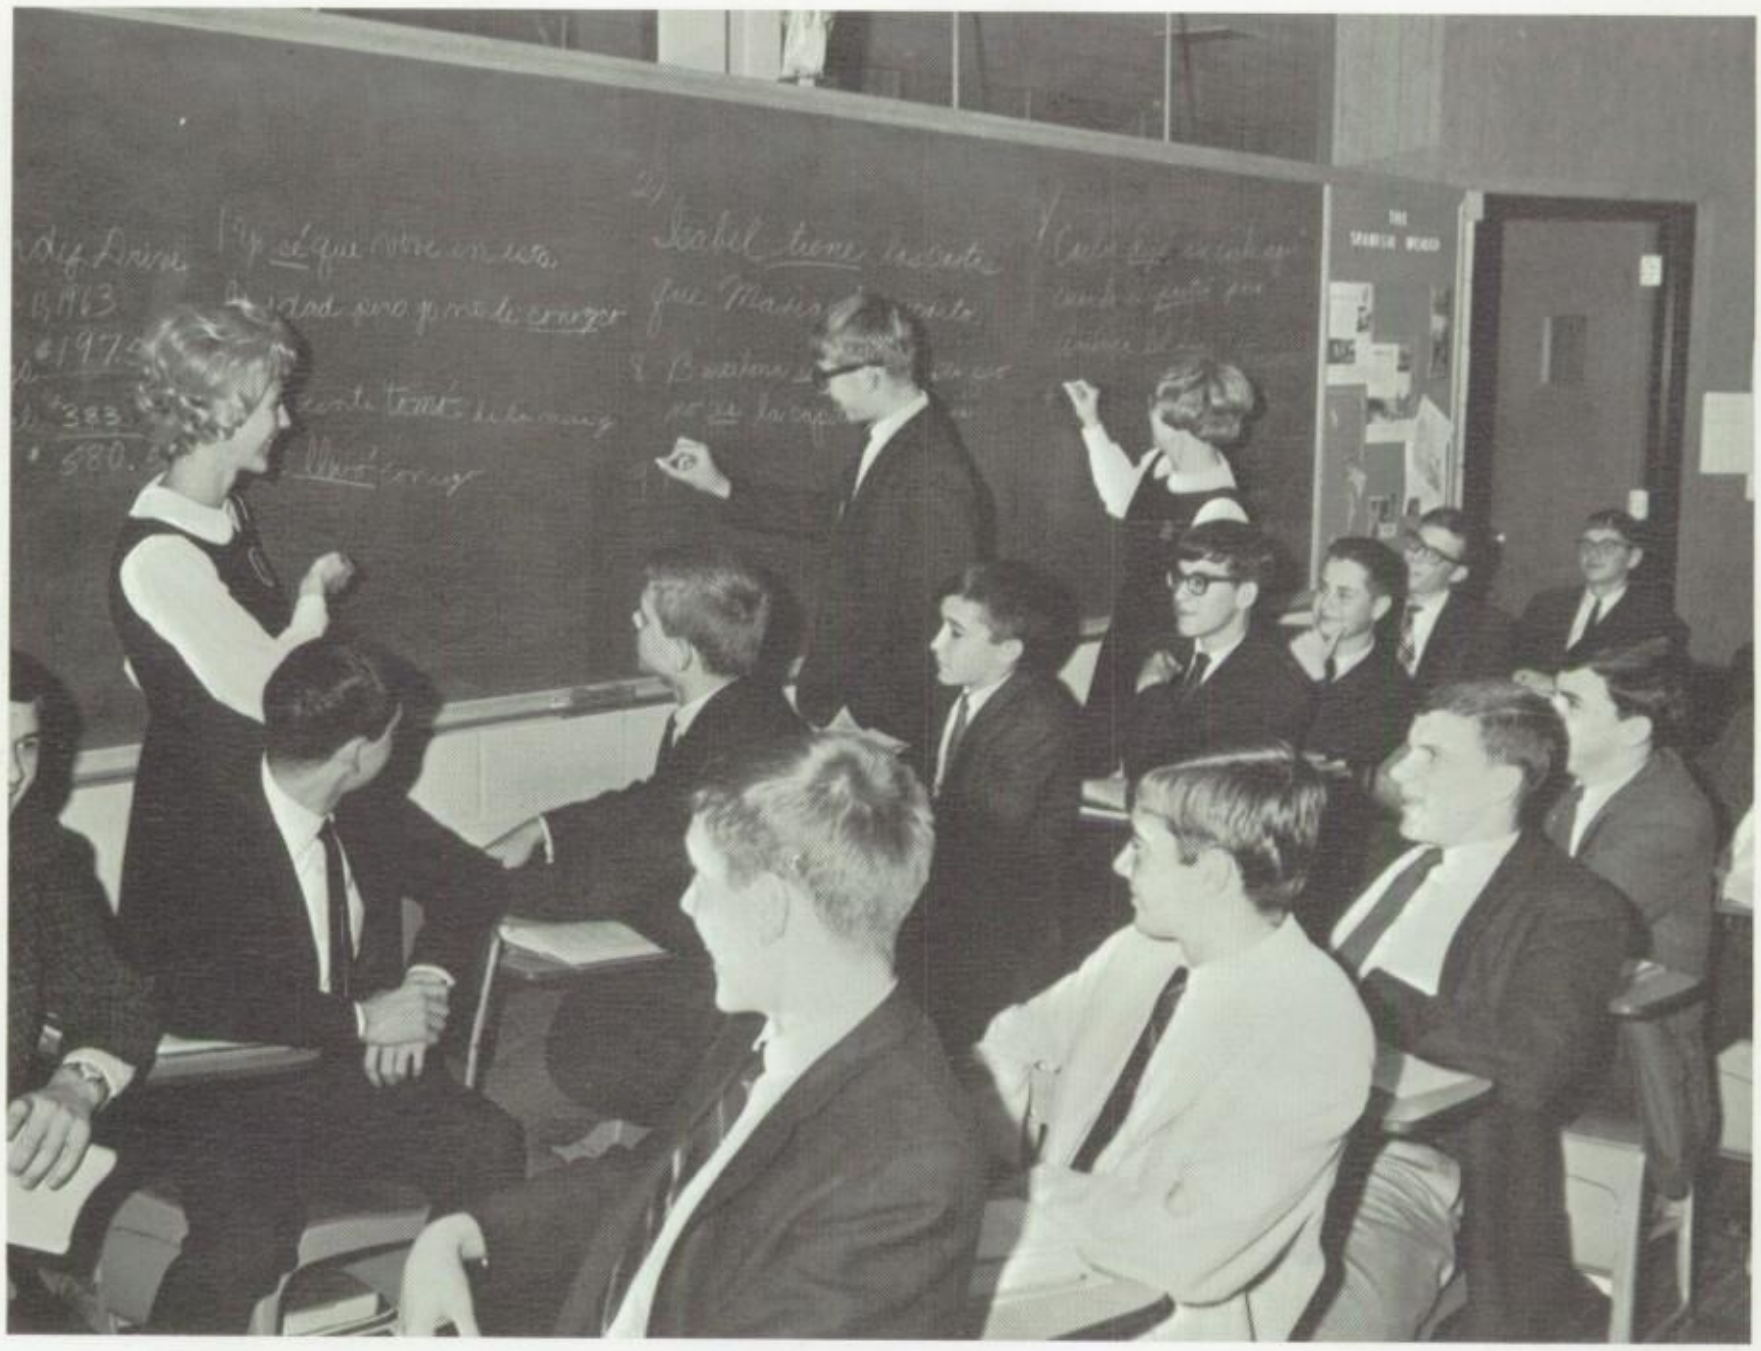
Gerald Arcuri, Julia Coover, and Barbara Mikush with the aid of the tape recorder strive to improve their pronunciation in a French I class.

Capturing French Culture



Taking "dictée" these diligent French students are building up their vocabulary thus enabling them to have a better grasp of the language.





Seniors of Spanish II check on daily translations with many a slip between board and book! Barbara Swartzer compares her sentences with class opinions on agreements.

and Spanish Customs

Marie (Quela) Raquel, an Argentinian Exchange Student attends Central High, York. As Margie Incera's guest, they are interviewed by students of Spanish II. Margarita, a Cuban, enrolled at Y.C. last fall.

Sister Ann Cecilia and Mr. Menocal graciously give us time away from their Spanish translations. Both are newly appointed Spanish instructors at York Catholic.

Latin Speaks Through the Ages

Concentration is never more intense than in the struggle to "wrestle" Cicero out of Latin and into English dress! It is evident that these Seniors are always well prepared for the inevitable day of testing, and are always willing to face new challenges in their study of Latin.

Sister Marguerite Marie

Susan Neuroh (front) volunteers to rescue Eugene Weaver at sea in a translation! Pete Beddia and Thomas Ballerstein look to Sister Canuta with confidence. Study of Latin I lays a verbal basis for electives in French or Spanish during the coming two years.

Anita Schneider (speaker), Anne Gierlach and Betsy Mortorff defend the proud Medea whose love for Jason, rejected and betrayed, has turned to terrible hatred.

The Junior English course offers a varied and interesting look at Literature through The Pageant of Literature. Here, the Junior Class studies an all time favorite, "Macbeth," and explores its vast depths through the help of maps, pictures, and notes.

English Comes to Life

Miss Marguerite Reilly takes her English I Class through Grammatical paces with Arts and Skills.

Hera (Patricia Neuroh) is fascinated more by the camera than by the Golden Apple held by Eris (Francine Murphy) while Aphrodite (Valerie Paludis) and Athena (Mary Ormanoski) are more interested in winning the approval of Paris (Norma Cordora) and Zeus (Susan Valenti).

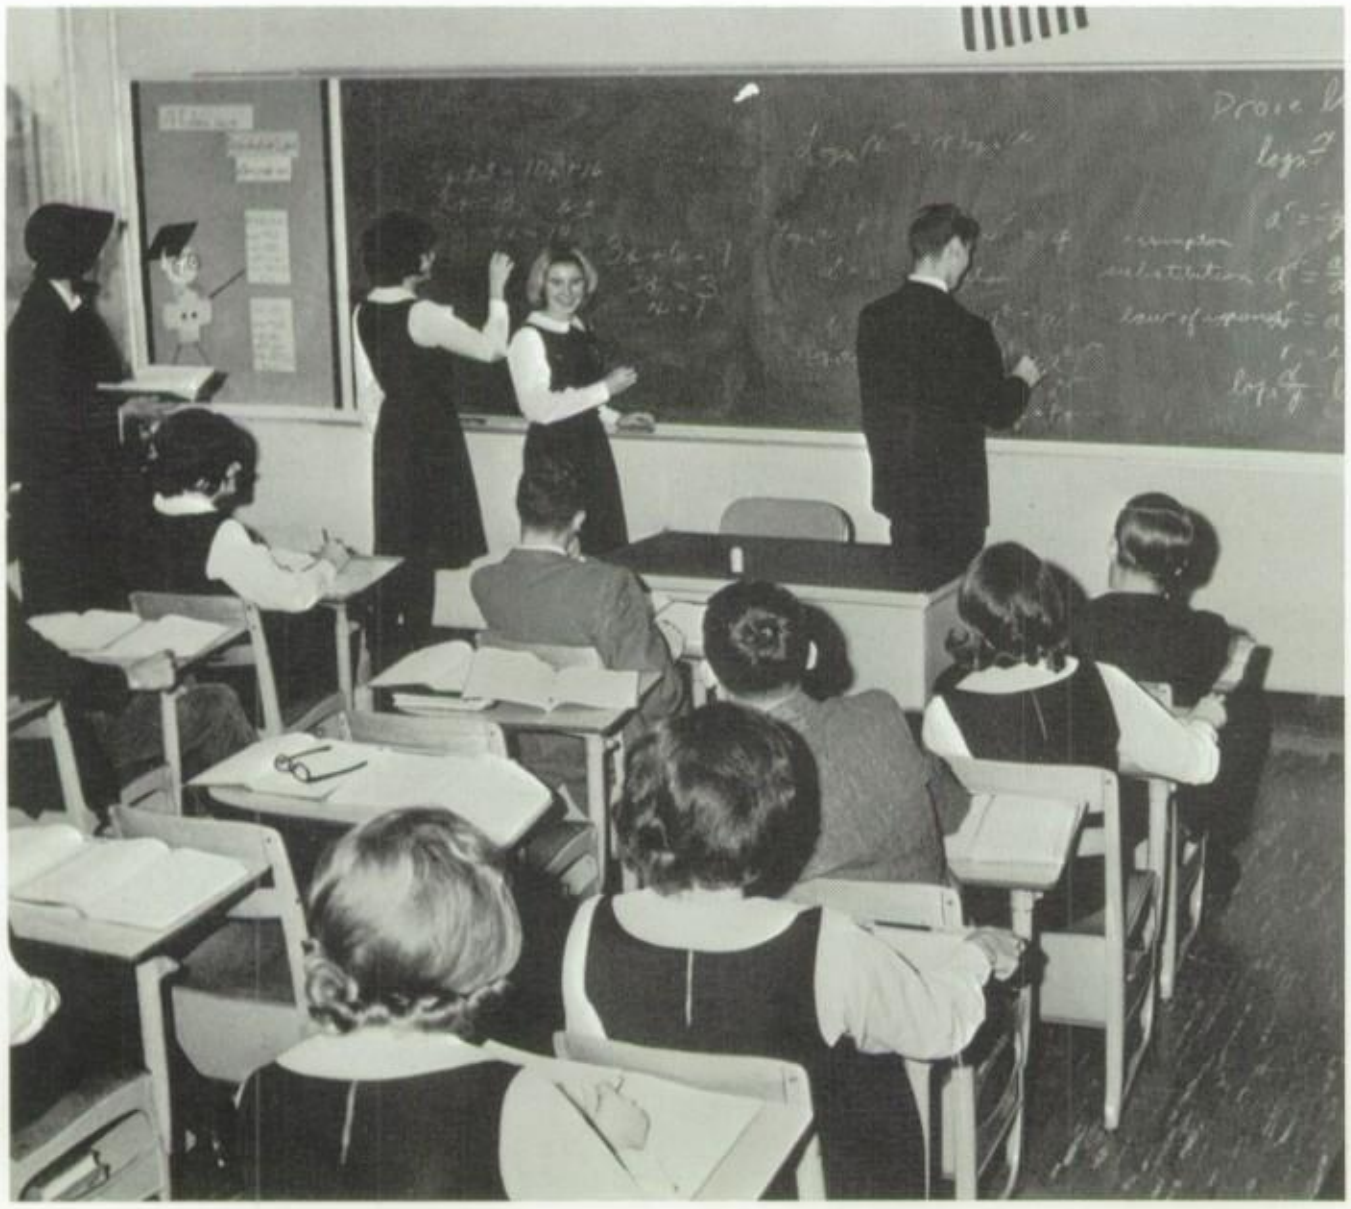
The Business World is of primary importance to this Business Math Class. B. Wagman, G. Stone, and C. Holland demonstrate their ability to work out Interest Problems under the able supervision of Sister Berchmans.



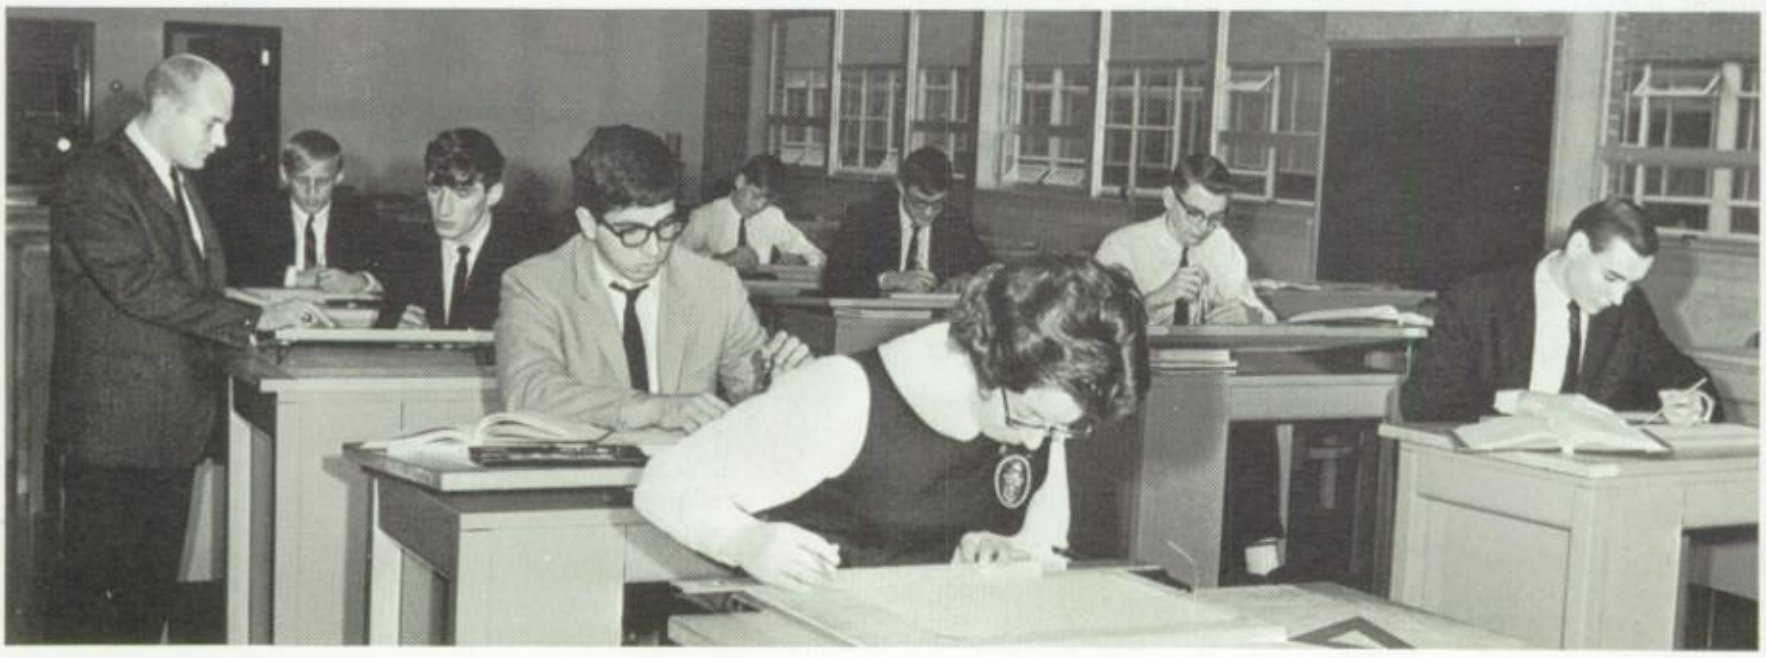
MATH

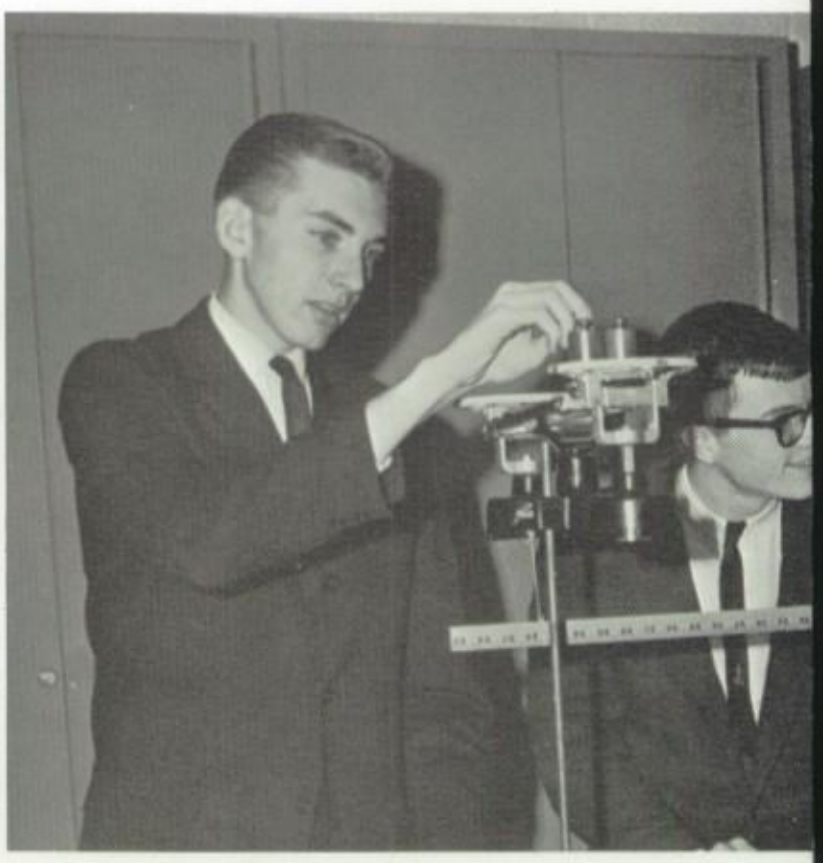
The understanding of Quadratic Equations is the primary talent of this second year Algebra class. Sister Dorothy Marie looks on as K. Nissley, S. Savinsky, and J. Atkins prove their problems.

Point by point, Stephanie Steckler, with the approval of Sister Josephine Mary, explains the principles of the intersection of two graphs of inequality to M. Horn, L. Omlor, M. Hicky, S. Chronister.

EMATICS GATEWAY TO THE UNIVERSE

Perfection — nothing less, is the goal of this Advanced Mechanical Drawing Class. Under the well-trained hand of Coach Paul Borsa, they pencil into the world of Isometrics, Sections and Blueprints.





Senior physicists P. Brennan, R. Bosick, M. Hopwood, and T. Russell are carefully calculating the differences of grams in a recent weights and measures lecture.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 22, 1963

"With a good conscience our only sure reward, with history the final judge of our deeds, let us go forth to lead the land we love, asking His blessing and His help but knowing that here on earth God's work must truly be our own."

J. F. Kennedy's Inaugural Address

the Account of Our Ancestors

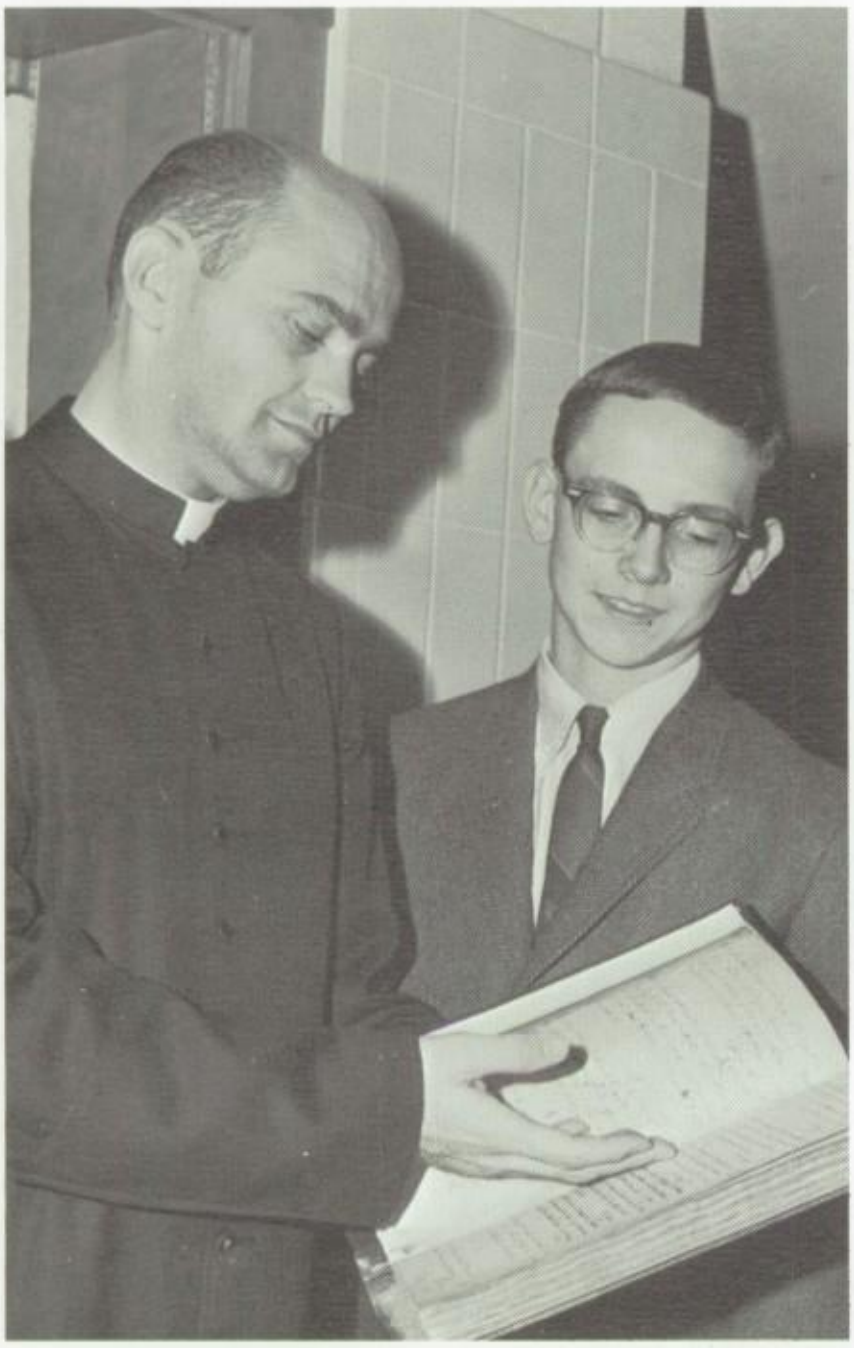
Governor Scranton permitted R. Harteis, Michael Strong, W. Walsh, and M. Hickey to attend a Press Conference in order to present their alternate opinions on the controversial Sales Tax Increase. The Governor commended the young men on their interest in local as well as national politics.

YC's Sacristan, Sister Thomas Miriam, is reverently and ably assisted in her Chapel duties by K. Price, C. Glackin, L. Sibol, and J. Gunnet.

Religion holds first place in our life at York Catholic. Freshmen begin an intensive four year study of it by reviewing the life of Christ and His teachings. Second year students study the Mystical Body and the functionings of the Church. Juniors are instructed in the Moral Law. Seniors receive an initiation into Adult Catholicism. Through our studies we receive a deeper appreciation of our Faith.

RELIGION IS

York Catholic is among the first taking part in the history-making Liturgical Movement of the Church by giving each student a chance to partake in the Offertory, placing his own host in the ciborium held by the altar boy.



Father Paul Miller points out to Michael Althoff the signature of John Bishop Neumann. The Baptismal Record was graciously lent by Father Gustin of Saint John's, New Freedom.

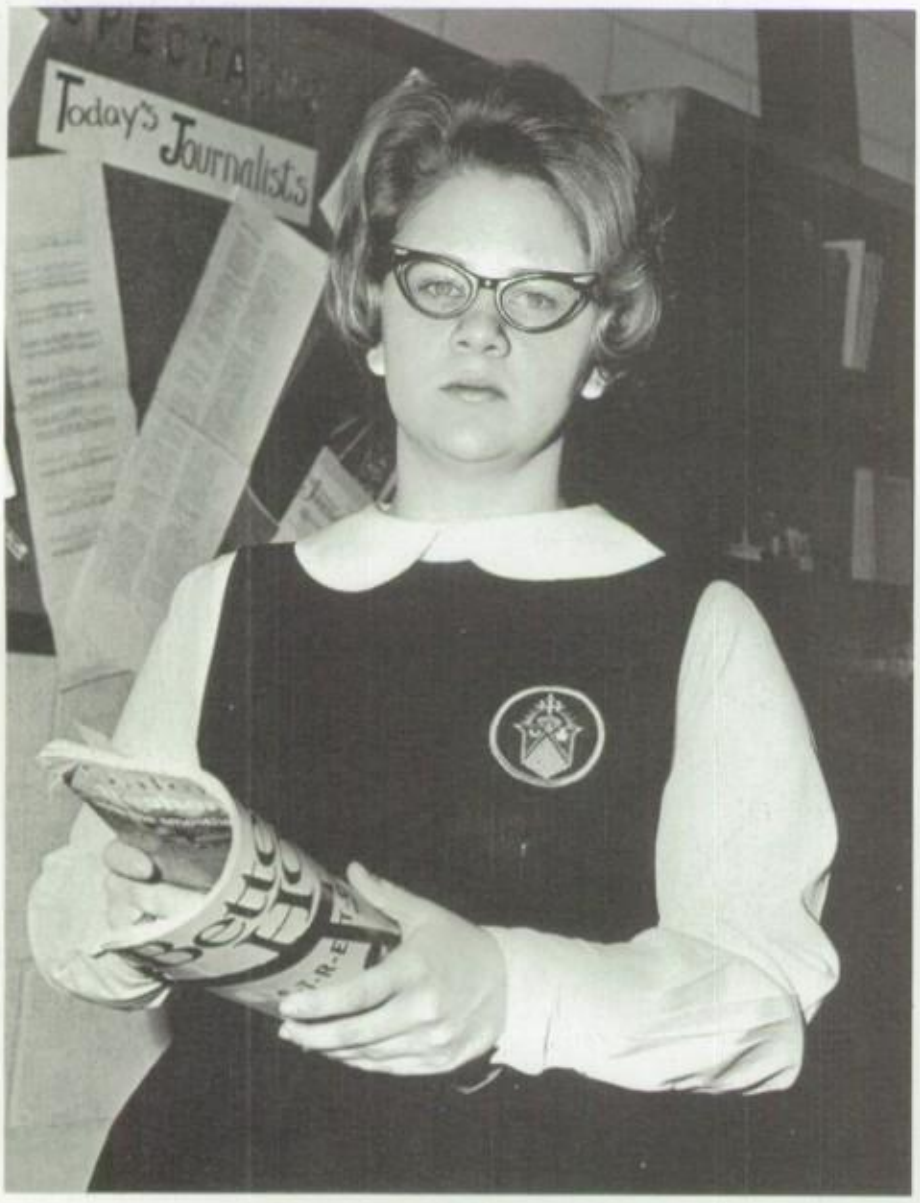
These busy Juniors are working on a debate question selected for this year. No one knows the meaning of research better than a debater, who must continually check his sources of information. It is one of the few intellectually rewarding contests in high school.



Mary Anne Kingree is Y.C.'s 1964 Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow. Achieving the highest score on the examination sponsored by General Mills, Mary Anne looks forward to a windfall of opportunities ranging from an achievement pin and scholarship fund to a tour. Congratulations, Mary Anne!

Members of the Junior Forensics Club page through pamphlets in search of a topic for an Extemporaneous discussion while Mr. Zehinger's mind is on the local competition to be held at Delone.

Anticipating her presentation but not her preparation, we find Miss Marguerite Reilly selecting a play for Junior Dramatics. She initiates this activity in the Spring term.

The Art of Expression takes many forms — so think Ann O'Toole and Mike Brown!

Members of the Senior Secretarial Class take dictation from two sources simultaneously. The group in the foreground are tuned in to the Cue Master and have individual diction, while those in the background hear the dictation from the classroom instructor.

"What Christmas should mean to Secretaries" is the theme of a special meeting for the members of the Business Education Club. Dianna Hoke and Carole Eck (standing) approve subjected references from current business magazines as Susan Englert, Leona Kitlinski, Freida Stevenson and Bonnie Grimek discuss plans and Sue Foster, Gerri Zagurski and Carol Racine do the necessary typing.

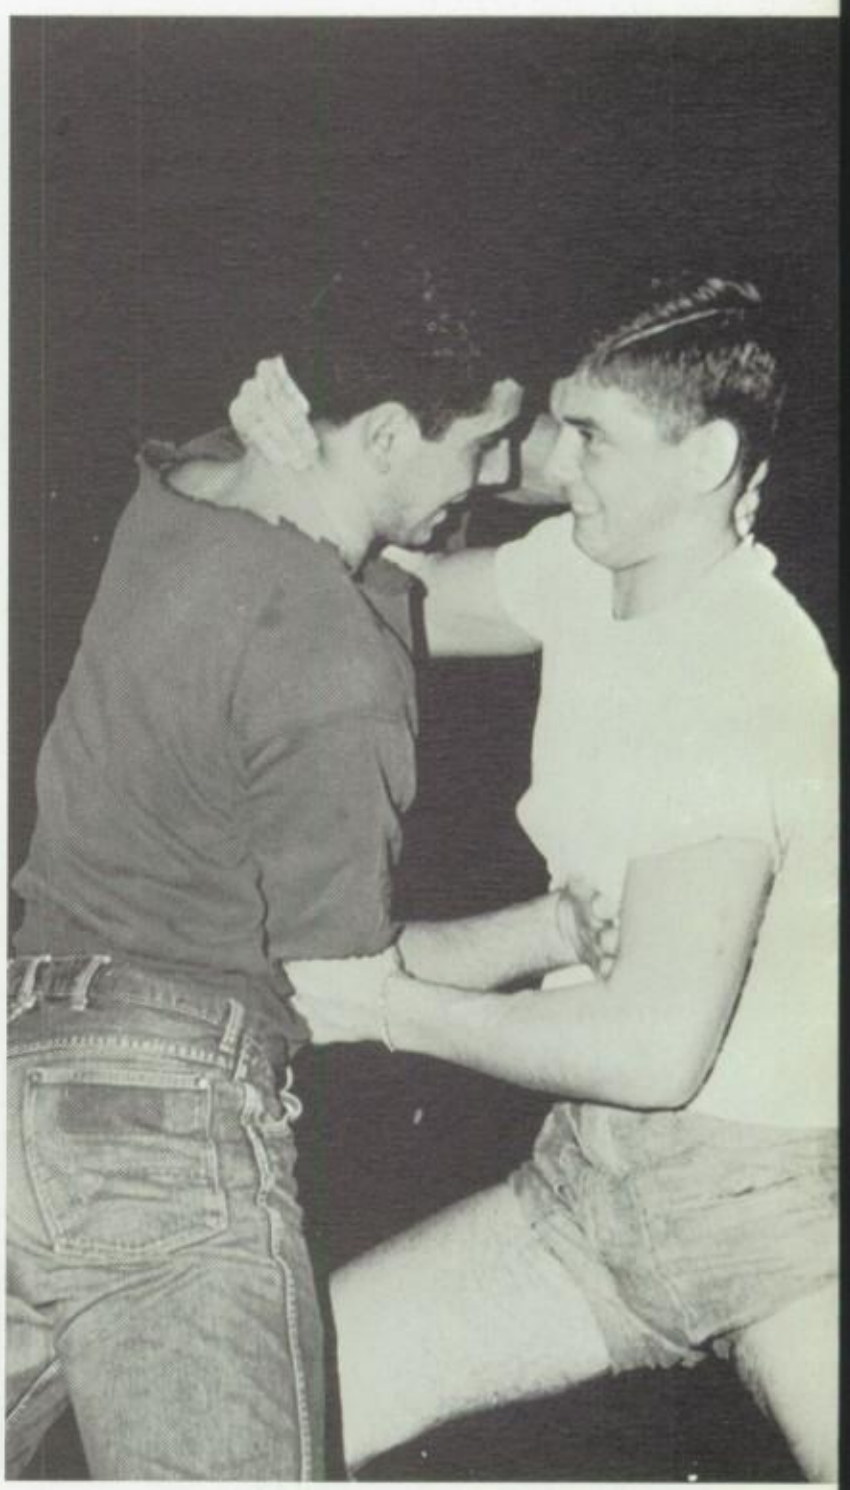
Betty Rose is shown the rudiments of badminton by Mrs. John Concino, the girls' Physical Education Instructor. She teaches the elements of good sportsmanship and hygienic habits to Sophomore girls.

A group of senior girls perform for their class a modified version of carousel. Other periods find them working out with calisthenics to measure up to the late President Kennedy's Physical fitness program.

Why play by the rules! Mike Misterka looks as if he has Lee Bentivegna at a disadvantage. So Lee retaliates with a little foul play.

To block that shot seems to be the object of all Louie Weaver's thoughts. The balance of interest in boys' gym classes goes to basketball.

Seeing eye to eye, two of our heavy weights, George Erbe and Lee Bentivegna, strenuously try to outdo each other in a gym wrestling match.

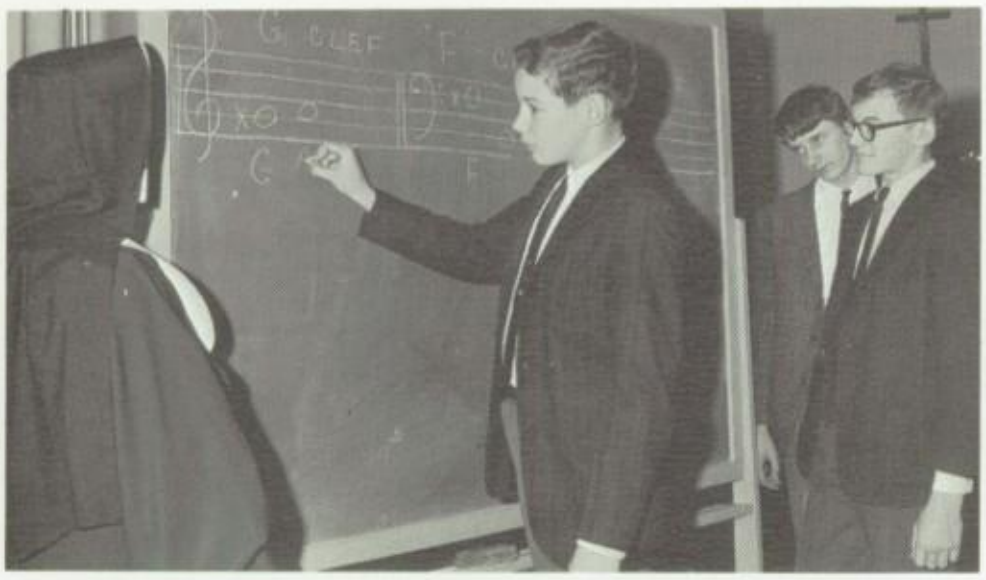


Mrs. Nemser directs in the sketching of a snake plant. Mrs. Nemser left us in November and her classes are now being conducted by Mrs. C. Richard Steckler.

The artwork for "Stardust" posters was done by these two seniors, J. Mayhew, and J. Breen. These posters were distributed throughout the parishes of York.

Appreciating

Michael Saltzgiver demonstrates to this art class the use of proper shadowing. All of these students will submit posters for the Handicapped Contest.



Paul Fink demonstrates his knowledge of the staff's lines and spaces. General Music is offered to all Freshmen classes to broaden the scope of knowledge offered at York Catholic.

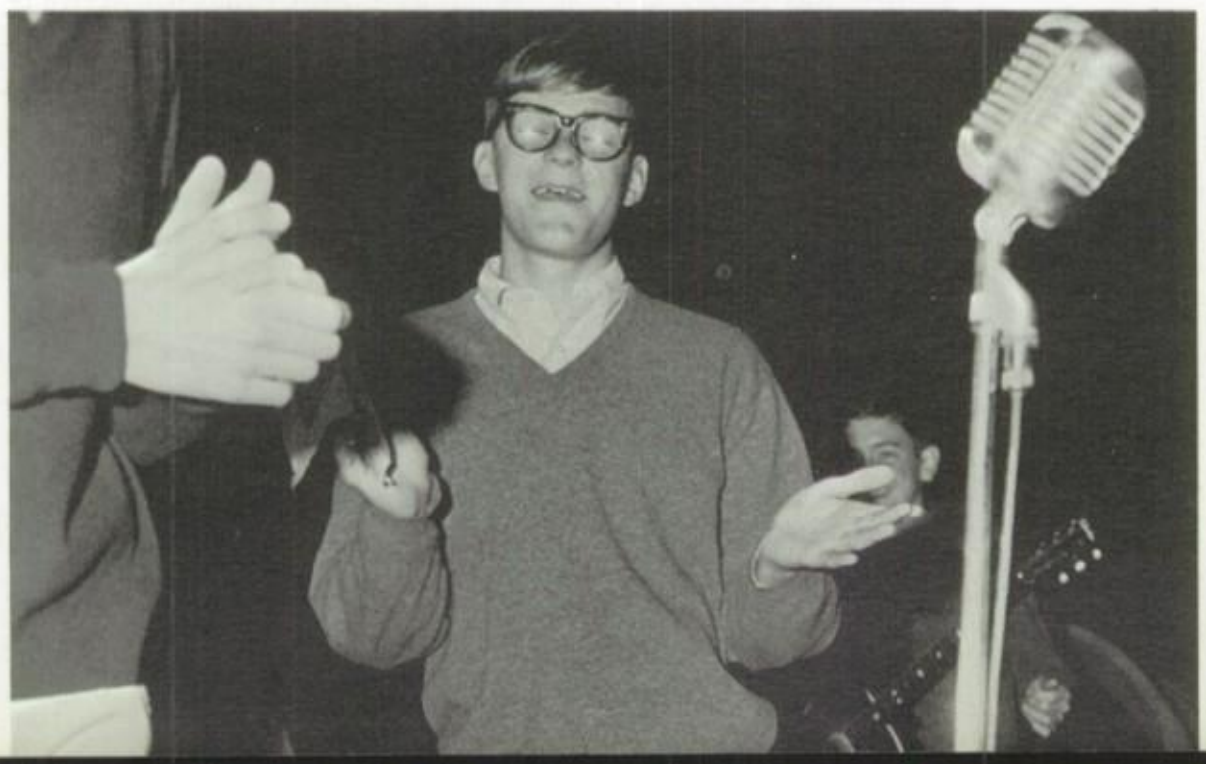
Student Council

Student Council demands much of Vice President Richard Harteis, including entertaining at Pep Rallies.



Characteristic of York Catholic's Student Council members is the practice of the high ideals of Catholic youth. They possess the leadership traits of integrity, initiative, a sense of responsibility, a genuine interest in all school undertakings, and willingness to give generously of their time and service. These qualities enable them to foster a better relationship between student and faculty. To help promote school spirit, and to develop in every student a sense of civic responsibility is the ultimate goal of each elected Officer and Representative.

"Did I win," Joseph Gangloff seems to ask as tension mounts in campaign headquarters. J. Gangloff, S. Spiese, M. Keesey, R. List, C. Mead.

A new Administration begins, and new responsibilities assumed as Joseph Gangloff accepts the Gavel from Ex-President Dennis Falvey.

Carol Racine never falls asleep on the job. Neither do our other hard working Senior Representatives: Carol Racine, Leonard Bentivegna, Mary Ann Smyser, Gerald Hoffnagle, Susan Foster, Ralph List, Elizabeth List, Louis Weaver.

Football Develops —

The Irish, with new Assistant Coach, Mr. Paul Borsa, and nine lettermen back, looked ahead to a rough season. Opening against Middletown, the Irish displayed a good defense throughout the first half, but the lack of speed dropped defeat into our laps. The Irish then took on our city rivals, Suburban. Eisenhour tallied in the second quarter but the Green and Gold failed to hold the lead as the Trojans scored twice in the fourth quarter. Waynesboro, our next opponent capitalized on the Irish fumbles and went on to win 12-0. For the first time, the Irish combined a potent offense with their reliable defense. The result being an upset victory over Southwestern. Halfback, Mike Eisenhour, scored twice, and End Steve Petrany once, on a pass from Shinn to account for the scoring.

Take it easy on them, Coach Borsa barks as Coach Sinkovitz and Coach Forjan plan more strategy against Southwestern.

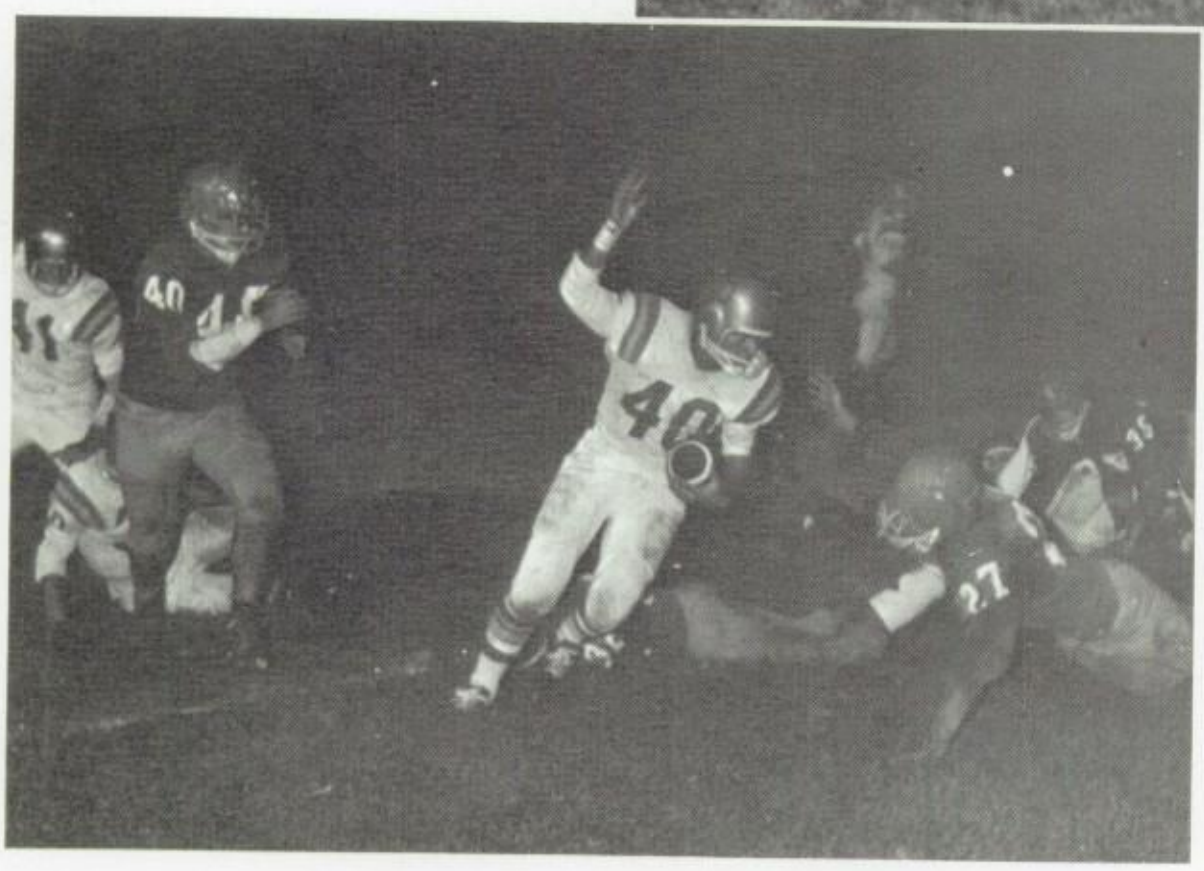
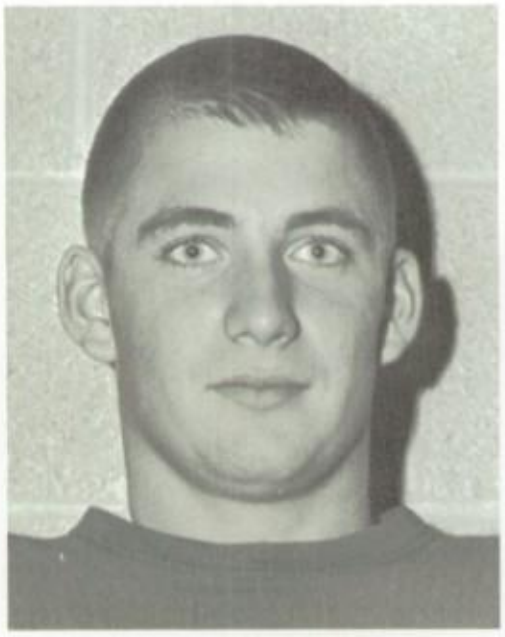
Eisenhour (27) gives all he has in an effort to bring down a McDevitt ball-carrier. Brown (35) and Petrany (25) give assistance to Ike.



Courtade (26) crashes through the middle of Suburban's line as Walsh and Tuleya (36) clear the way. Witman (32) hustles over to help out his teammate.

Co-ordination and Endurance

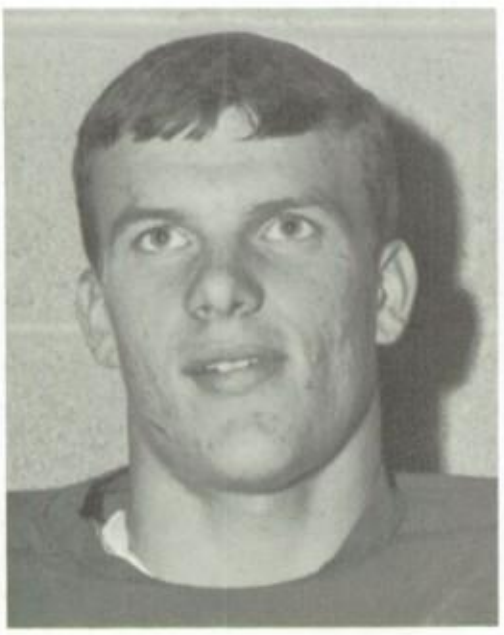
Culbertson runs a fudge play. Cid (23) gains 10 yards on a power play with Gangloff (18) and Courtade (26) leading the play. Gierlach (42) throws a downfield block.



John Gierlach — Co-Captain — Most Valuable Player — a tough guy with a sense of humor.

Team Salutes Seniors

McDevitt turned back the Irish in their final contest that marked the end of a long and traditional gridiron rivalry. In our next two games — Delone and Lancaster — York scored first but dropped seemingly identical games governed by bad breaks. Courtade scored against Delone on a 68 yard romp, and Shorb against Lancaster on a 14 yard end sweep. The squad closed out their season at St. Francis Prep. Gary Courtade scored in the first quarter but for the fourth time this season victory was snatched from our hands and the Irish had to settle for a tie.



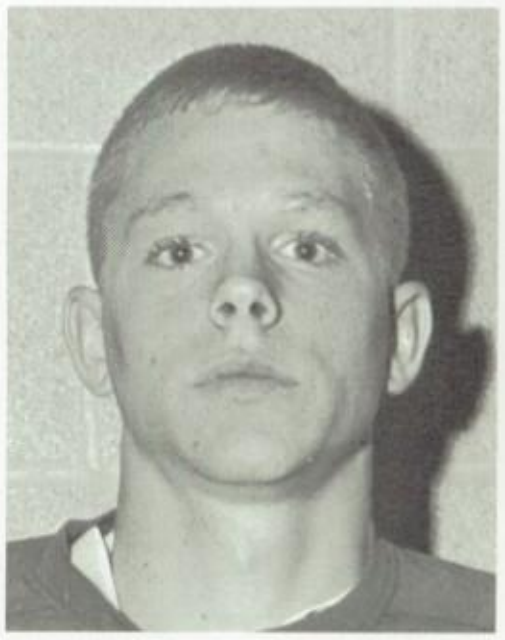
Steve Petrany — End — a hard player in many ways.

Cid Culbertson — Back — little man who brings the big boys down.

Mike Brown — Guard — a tough man to move.

Jack Rooney — Tackle — big man on defense.

Murder the bum! Petrany (25) and Rooney (41) team up to down a Southwestern back, as Witman, Tuleya and Gierlach pursue the play.



Joe Gangloff — Co-Captain — a never-say-die Quarterback.

Happy smiles are portrayed on faces of the Court and Queen at the Homecoming Dance. The girls are: Dianna Hoke, Leona Kitlinski, queen, Sonia Chronister, Mary Ann Weaver, Mary Ann Smyser, Betty Rose, Peggy Nichol, and Sue Foster.

Homecoming . . .

Fly Me to

"I know I have some money in here someplace," says Louie Weaver to Gregg Shinn as date Mardie Foster looks on hopefully. Ann O'Toole and Mike Brown look highly amused with the situation.

Through the capabilities of our everwilling Student Council York Catholic's Lobby was transformed into the timely theme, "Fly Me to the Moon." Homecoming saw the traditional attendance of alumni and students. Under a well-blended sky of fluffy clouds and brightly colored stars York Catholic opened its annual Homecoming Dance. The 1963 affair took place on November 30, from 8:30 to 11:30 P.M. The appropriate and well chosen selections of The Yorkers made the evening "a moonbeam of memories" for everyone.

The Moon

Sonia answers the question! She proudly displays her bouquet of scarlet roses, presented to her by the football team.

Our varsity cheerleaders jump with joy as our team tramples Susquehannock. That night marked our team's second victory of the season.

York Catholic Varsity and J.V.'s, together with the Color Guard promote a rallying spirit through Football and Basketball seasons. They are an important ingredient in York Catholic sports world.

Guard t-hut! Captain Ellen Pettigrew stresses poise, alertness, and teamwork as she leads her Color Guard in a rigorous routine. Ellen Pettigrew Mary Ann Zech, Betsey Mortorff, Jeannie Strine, Mary Ann Metzler, Kathy Moore, Ellen Whalen, Freida Stevenson, Mickey Lydon, Kathy Chronister, Cathy Yanek, Sue Stover.

The members of the Varsity Cheerleading Squad: Bonnie Grimick, Captain, Ann O'Toole, Kathy Fogle, Mary Ann Smyser, Sue Foster, Mary Ann Weaver, Betty Rose, Ree Runkle, Carol Racine.

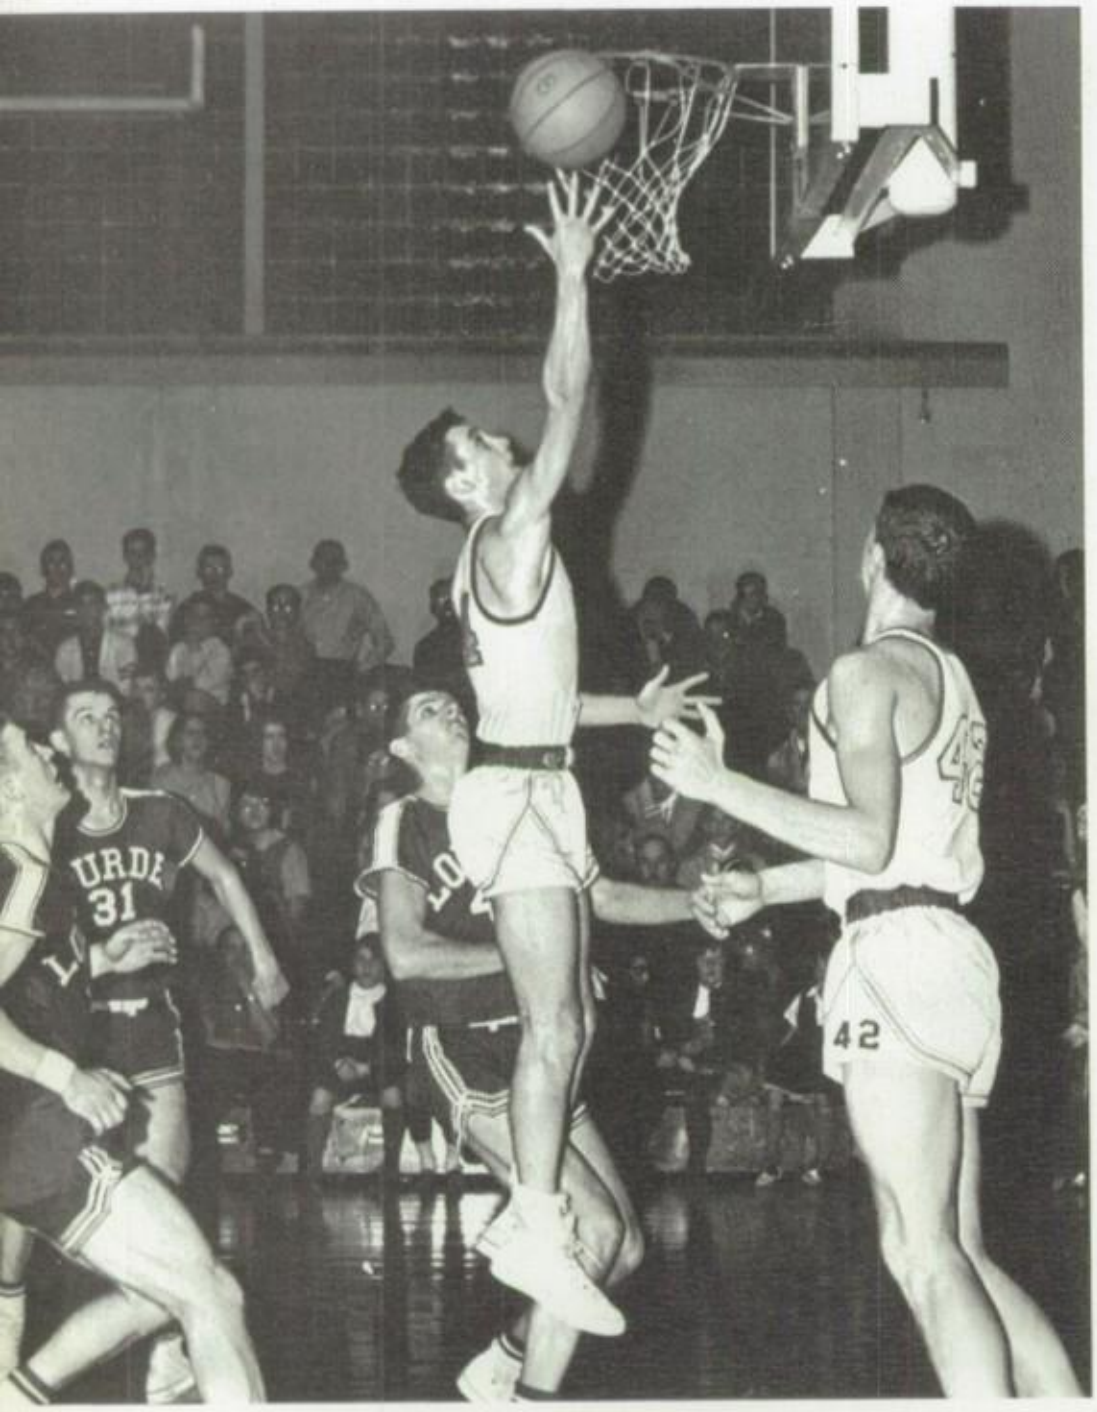
The four senior members of Y.C's Color Guard have given faithfully of their time, talents, and service. Thank you for a job well done!

Team Backers

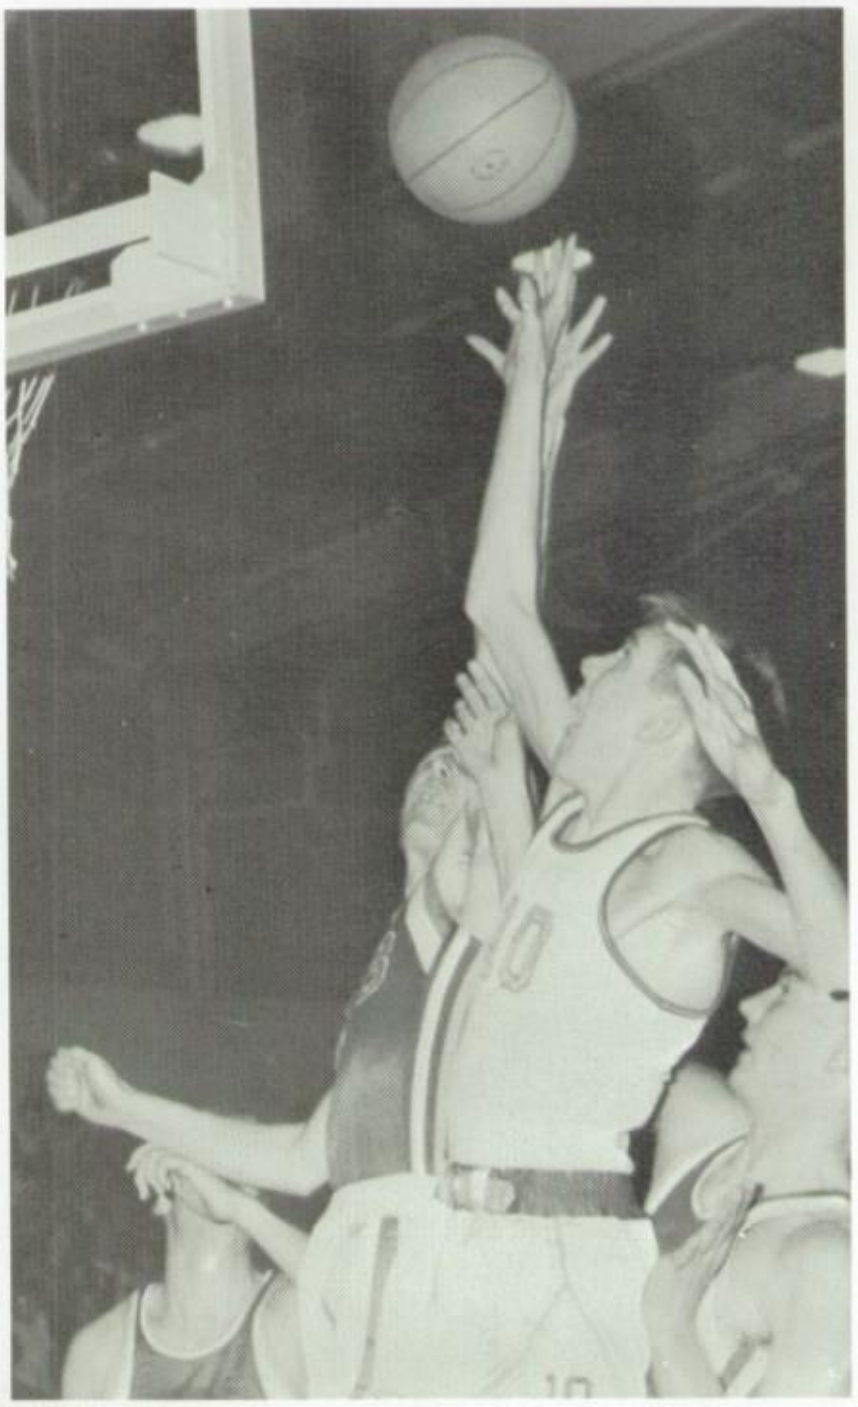
Come victory or defeat, these J.V.'s will always stay behind their team: Kerry Magni, Anita Schneider, Jean Gierlach, Mardie Foster, Ann Ballerstein, Steph Topley.

Irish — They're G-r-reat

The 1963-64 edition of the Irish cage-stars burst upon the scene with an explosive 77-65 victory over Central. Following successive victories over Susquehannock and Suburban, Y.C. met its toughest contests to date. The Green and Gold presented Coach Forjan with hard-earned wins over Middletown and Carlisle. Mike Keesey paved the way with 32 and 35 points, respectively, the latter a new school record. Tony Russell and Mike Hickey's continued game support left York Catholic with the only perfect record in Central Pennsylvania. Y.C. then traveled to Lebanon Catholic where we fell victim to the sharp shooting Beavers.



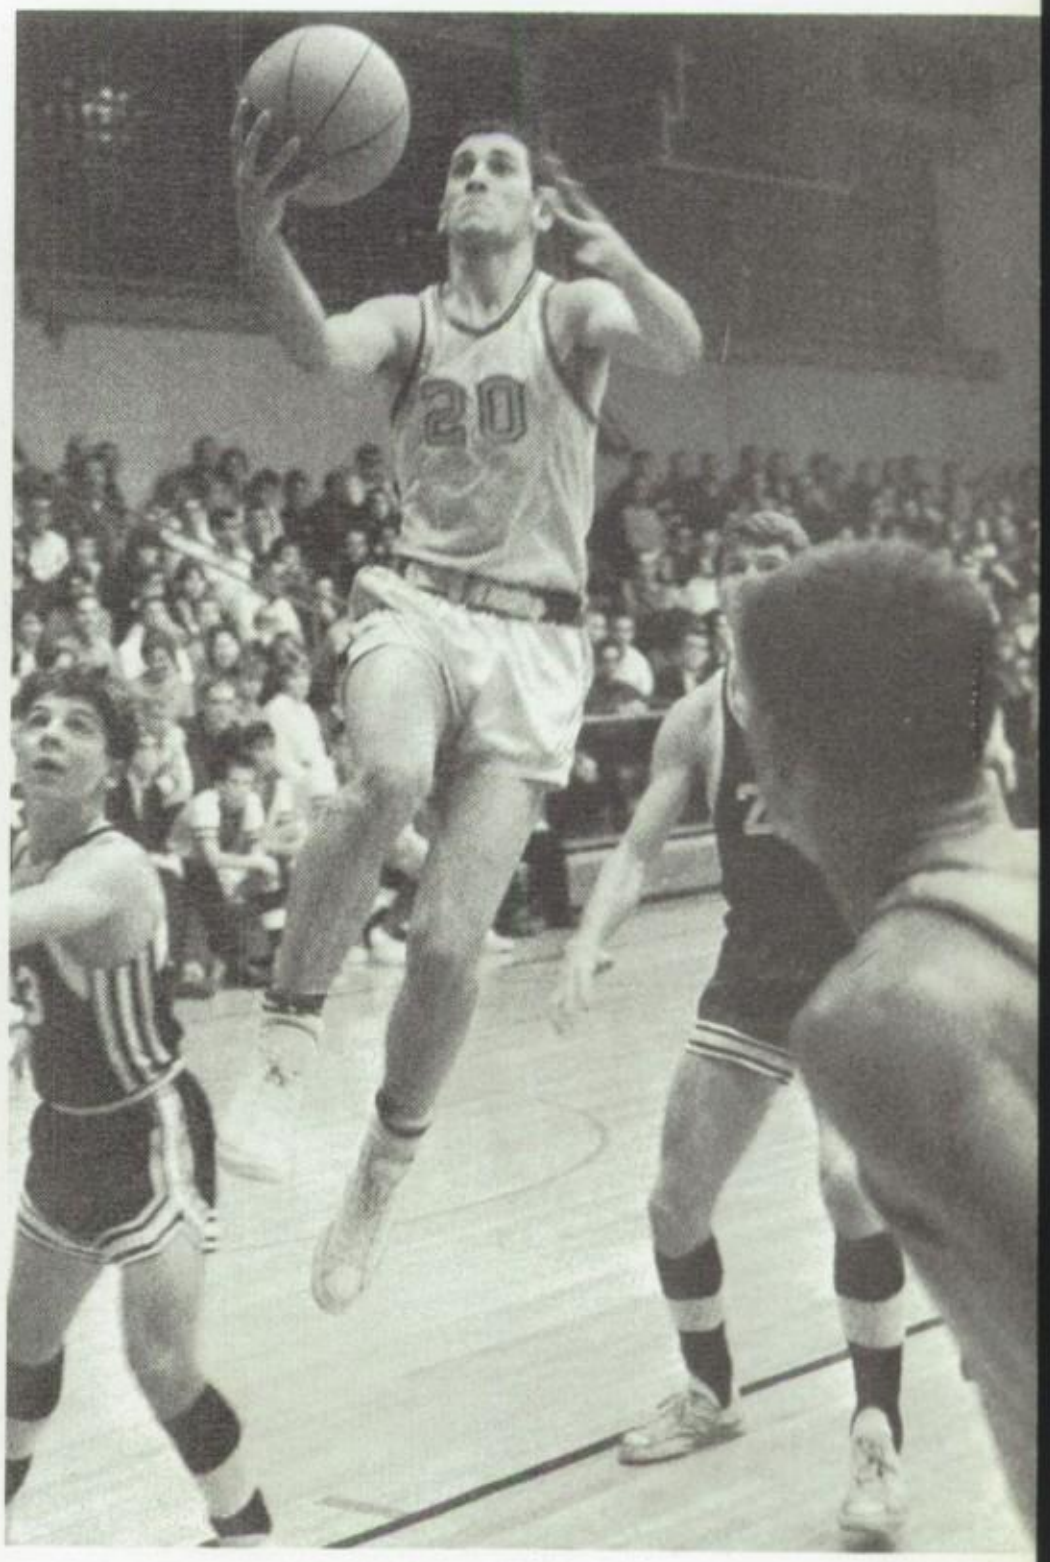
Bottom left — Steve Petrany looks on as a frustrated opponent realizes that Mike Keesey has done it again. Below — Senior Jim Linden puts in two more for the Irish as the Lancaster Crusaders try desperately to stop this onslaught.



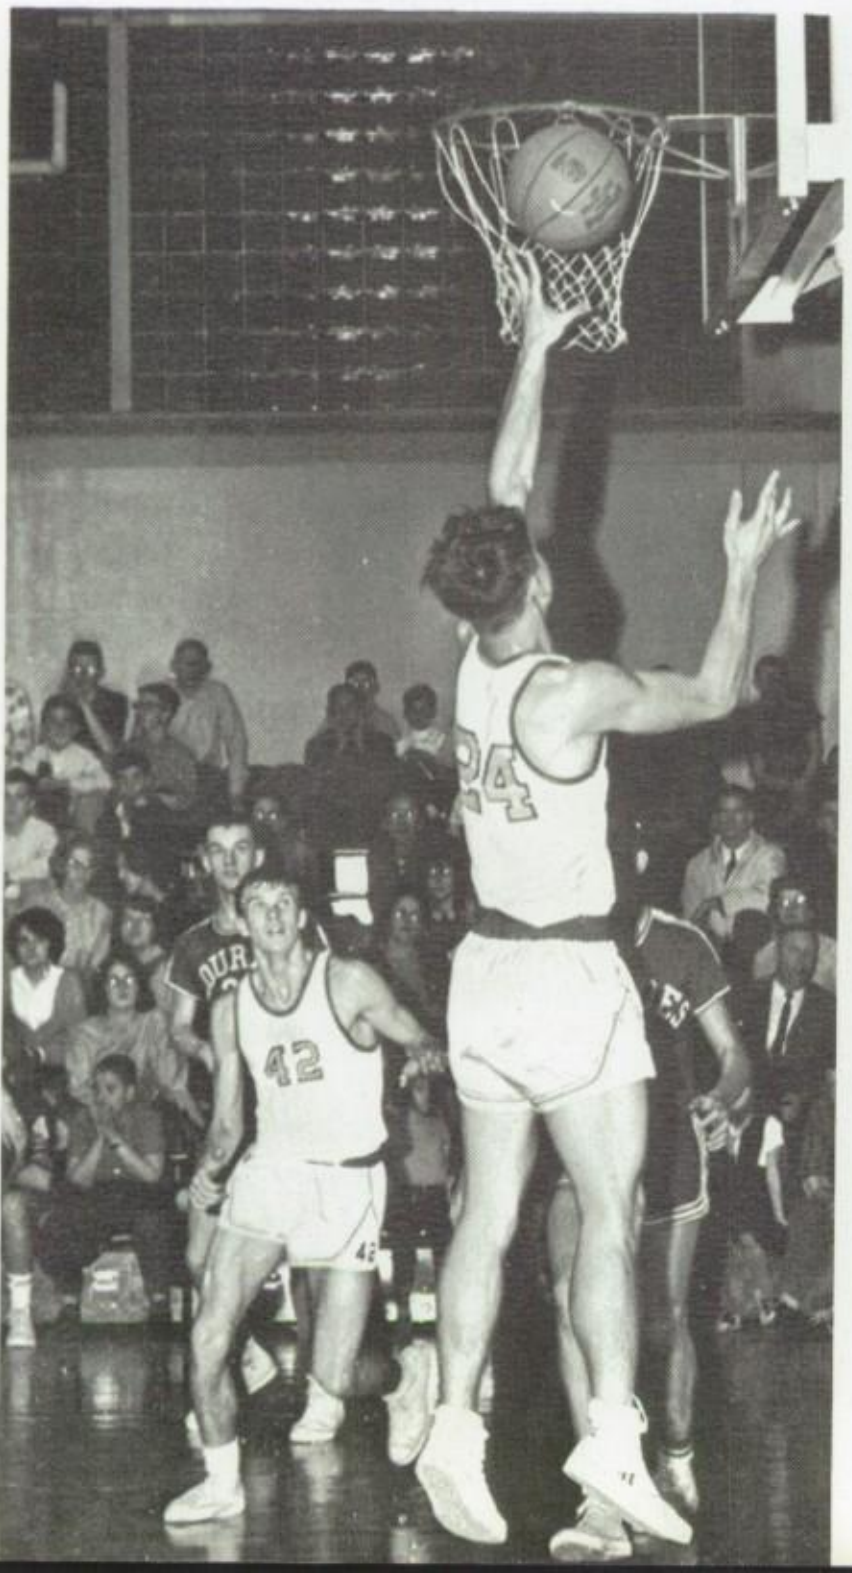
We quickly got back to our winning ways by drubbing the Squires of Delone. This win enabled us to prepare for the traditional clash with Bishop McDevitt. Following four periods of play and two overtime sessions, the Irish found themselves at the short end of a 66-65 score. Bright spots, however, dotted this gloomy picture: Top rebounder, Steve Petrany had another great night — Sharp shooting, Jim Linden canned 22 — and Mike Keesey set an all-time scoring mark by sinking his 1027th point. The Irish got back on the winning trail by taking the next six decisions. This again set the stage for the climatic finale. Bishop McDevitt once again crushed Y.C.'s dream of a championship.

The jubilance of both fans and members of the team is a sight seen quite often after a Y.C. basketball game.

Mike Keesey, the most prolific scorer in York Catholic's history, shows fine form in adding to his point total, with the ever present Steve Petrany moving in for the rebound.



"Ike" Eisenhouer, a junior member of the varsity, stuffs two as Steve Petrany moves in for a crack at the rebound.



Manager J. Gangloff, M. Eisenhouer, G. Shinn, M. Heininger, K. Knouse, Coach James Forjan. D. Whereley, A. Russel, J. Linden, M. Hickey, S. Petrany, J. Vranich, M. Keesey.

Mike Hickey under the basket, a long pass from upcourt, and a shot like this sent Central tumbling.

Fore! Lou Weaver takes a hefty swing on way to another par.

With the return of five able lettermen, our Championship duffers have served notice that they are the team-to-beat this Spring. — We are counting on two championships in a row.

Junior George Shorb follows through and eyes his ball as it drops neatly on the green.

Ken Knouse advances a baserunner with this solid hit against Central insuring Y.C. of another win.

"I have my integrity to think of!" says Arthur Scott, Jr. to Prudence Mason. Prudence, however, seems to think he should have been thinking of her.

"You will suspend all activities immediately, and withdraw the production," announces the Dean of Women to Mr. Bach, Phil Ford, Janet Ross, and Prudence Mason. Claire Carter and Jerry Flannigan plot to overthrow the Dean, while Arthur Scott regrets that he ever left Wall Street.

Prompters C. Racine and B. Rose turn to our set designing manequin as a diversion from "lines." B. Schwartzer, P. Nichol, B. Keller, and C. Glackin literally hung on casts' words.

Curtain Call and Grand Finale of STARDUST! Relieved, but unhappy that the show is over, they feel their long hours of practicing have not been in vain.

Y. C.'s faithful stage crew B. Feeser, M. Feeney, J. Huttinger, T. Kehoe, P. McGowan, and C. Jordan "carouse" during a well deserved break. Mr. Menocal, right, is their supervisor.

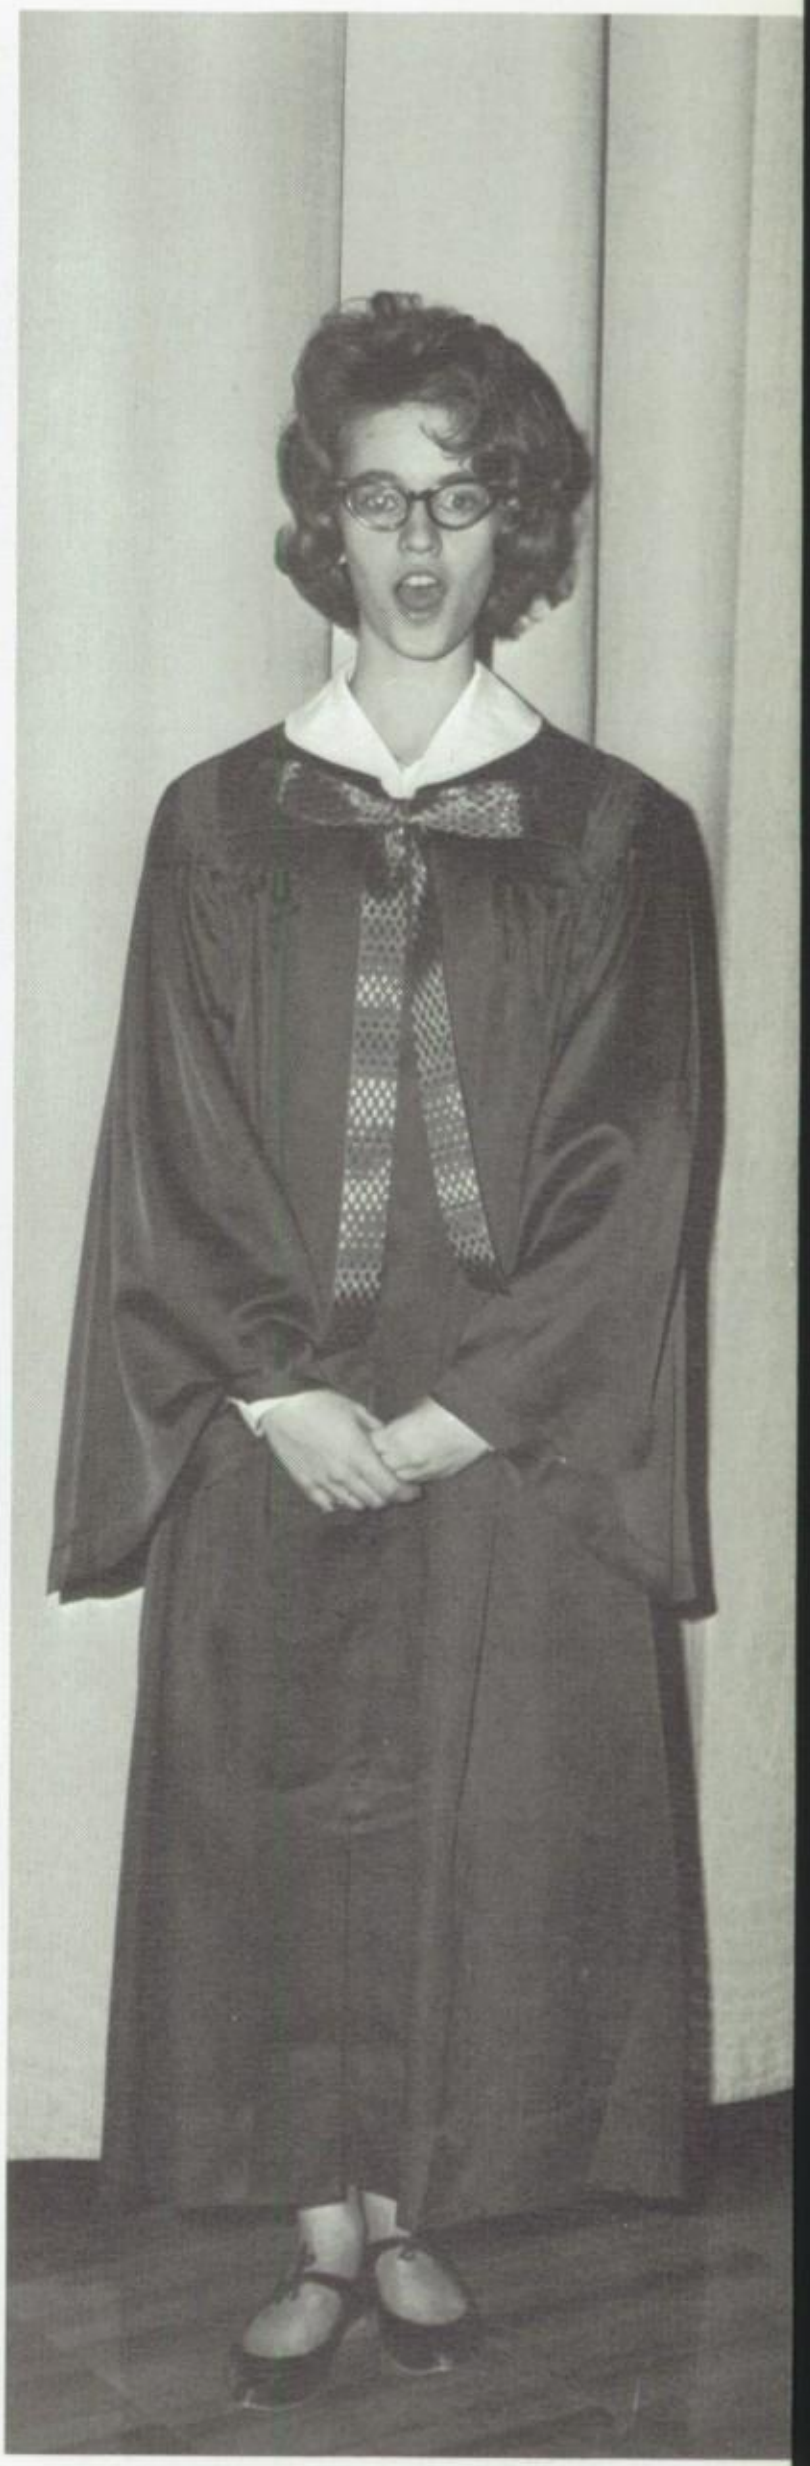
Gate-keeper, Wing-maker, Halo-shiner, Angels and Saints adore the Christ Child. The Littlest Angel's brown, wooden box of "earthy possessions" glows near the place of our Lord's birth.

"The Littlest Angel," played by Christopher Kelly, of St. Patrick's third grade, highlighted one of the best Christmas programs given at York Catholic. He had a big share in bringing the Spirit of Christmas into our hearts.

GLORIA IN

Our wood-carved Madonna, so familiarly associated with religious assemblies, was focused centrally in the decor of '63's Christmas Pageant.

EXCELSIS DEO



"O Holy Night," one of the most beautiful Christmas hymns, was sung by Stephanie Mitchell, a member of the Junior Class. Stephanie has been an active participant of the choir for three years.

Queen, Chris Jackson, beams with joy as Coach Sinkovitz presents her with a bouquet of flowers.

Shown here is our diligent Prom Committee: SEATED, E. Pettigrew, S. Steckler, S. Chronister, D. Hoke. M. Misterka, W. Walsh, J. Scarbough, G. Hoffnagle, and P. Neuroh.

Y.C.'s "Perfect" Escort, Frank Allen, helps his date, Sandra Zink, with her wrap.

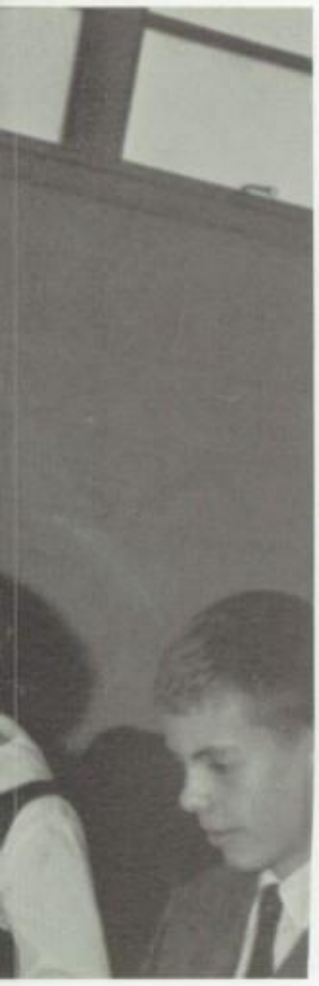
Typists: Mary Anne Moore and Kathy Zendher, work long hours preparing manuscript materials for the printer at York Post.

Robert Vaughn, Spectator's Business Manager, and his staff, Anita Mann, Lisa Nemser, Barbara Howell, Stephen Topper fold, staple, and prepare the finished edition for mailing and in-school distribution.

Spectator

Not all Robert Vaughn's after class time is spent in Publications. Our cameraman has caught him deeply engrossed during a Library study.

Today's Spectator traces its lineage to the York Catholic High School News, which was established in 1938. This year's staff comprised students from the upper three classes. Our newspaper provides for them a practical opportunity for developing their journalistic talents. This year the Spectator has published a monthly, rather than bi-monthly edition. The newsworthiness of the Spectator continues, if not surpasses, the high standard achieved by former staffs.



Journalists: Merrill Wye, Robert Swearinger, Lawrence. Omlor, Stanley Witman, and Robert Angelo discuss sport pictures and feature articles.

Editor: Dennis Long and Co-Editor: Ellen McGowan discuss with Mary Schell and Mary MacKinder the editorial policy of York Catholic's monthly paper.

Rosa Mystica's Literary Staffers C. Sansone, M. Strong, D. Walters, P. Nichol, S. Chronister, J. Miller, J. Vranich, S. Steckler, and M. Mundis use every available opportunity to make last minute adjustments before meeting their final deadline.

The Staff That Made

Frank Allen knows now the meaning of Public Relations! As Staff photographer he has captured happy and important memories for Rosa Mystica '64.

Rosa Mystica's Business Staff! B. Schwartzer, J. Shank, M. Seasholtz, C. Varnes, P. Huber, C. Ranard, M. Ostendorf, N. Keller, J. Reisinger, W. Gettys, K. Galloway, and S. Orlando. Their service and efficiency brought you this issue.

It Possible

Faithful and ever-efficient, Editor Mary Ann Dunn glances over notes prepared for our next meeting.

They said it couldn't be done! Y.C.'s time-sacrificing Rosa Mystica Staff M. A. Dunn, R. Alfano, M. J. Dimelow, S. Foster, E. Pettigrew, and M. Ormanoski prove this statement wrong as they meet demands of yearbook making under the direction of their moderator Sister Agnes Angela.

Anticipation is half the fun! M. Seasholtz, L. Gurreri, S. Stover, and C. Allen of the Business Staff happily prepare decorations for Rosa Mystica's annual dance "Winter Frolic."

The band of York Catholic gave some of its finest performances during Y.C.'s football season. Their moral support helps keep the spirit of the Fighting Irish — fighting. Besides football games the band enters many parades and competitions. Its participation in the Dioscean Band Festival originated with Sister Marita Cecilia.

Louis Schmidt stresses points to be drilled by lineup of the drum section with M. Frey. Mr. Schmidt has faithfully directed the band through many difficult formations. With his criticism, the band performed with a professional air.

Greg Seghetti, Band; Susie Simmons, Glee clubs; and Stephanie Steckler, Choir, discuss the Exchange Assemblies between Bishop McDevitt High School and York Catholic. Patricia Eckard, Orchestra; was not present when the picture was taken.

"Practice makes perfect" is the motto of Sister Marita Cecilia. With determination and patience, she led our band, orchestra, and choral groups through many long but fruitful practice sessions.

World Go Around

Our choir, composed of Seniors, Juniors, and Sophomores delighted many ears. Through assemblies dedicated entirely to spiritual, Broadway musical, historical and popular songs. Our music assemblies were of the finest taste.

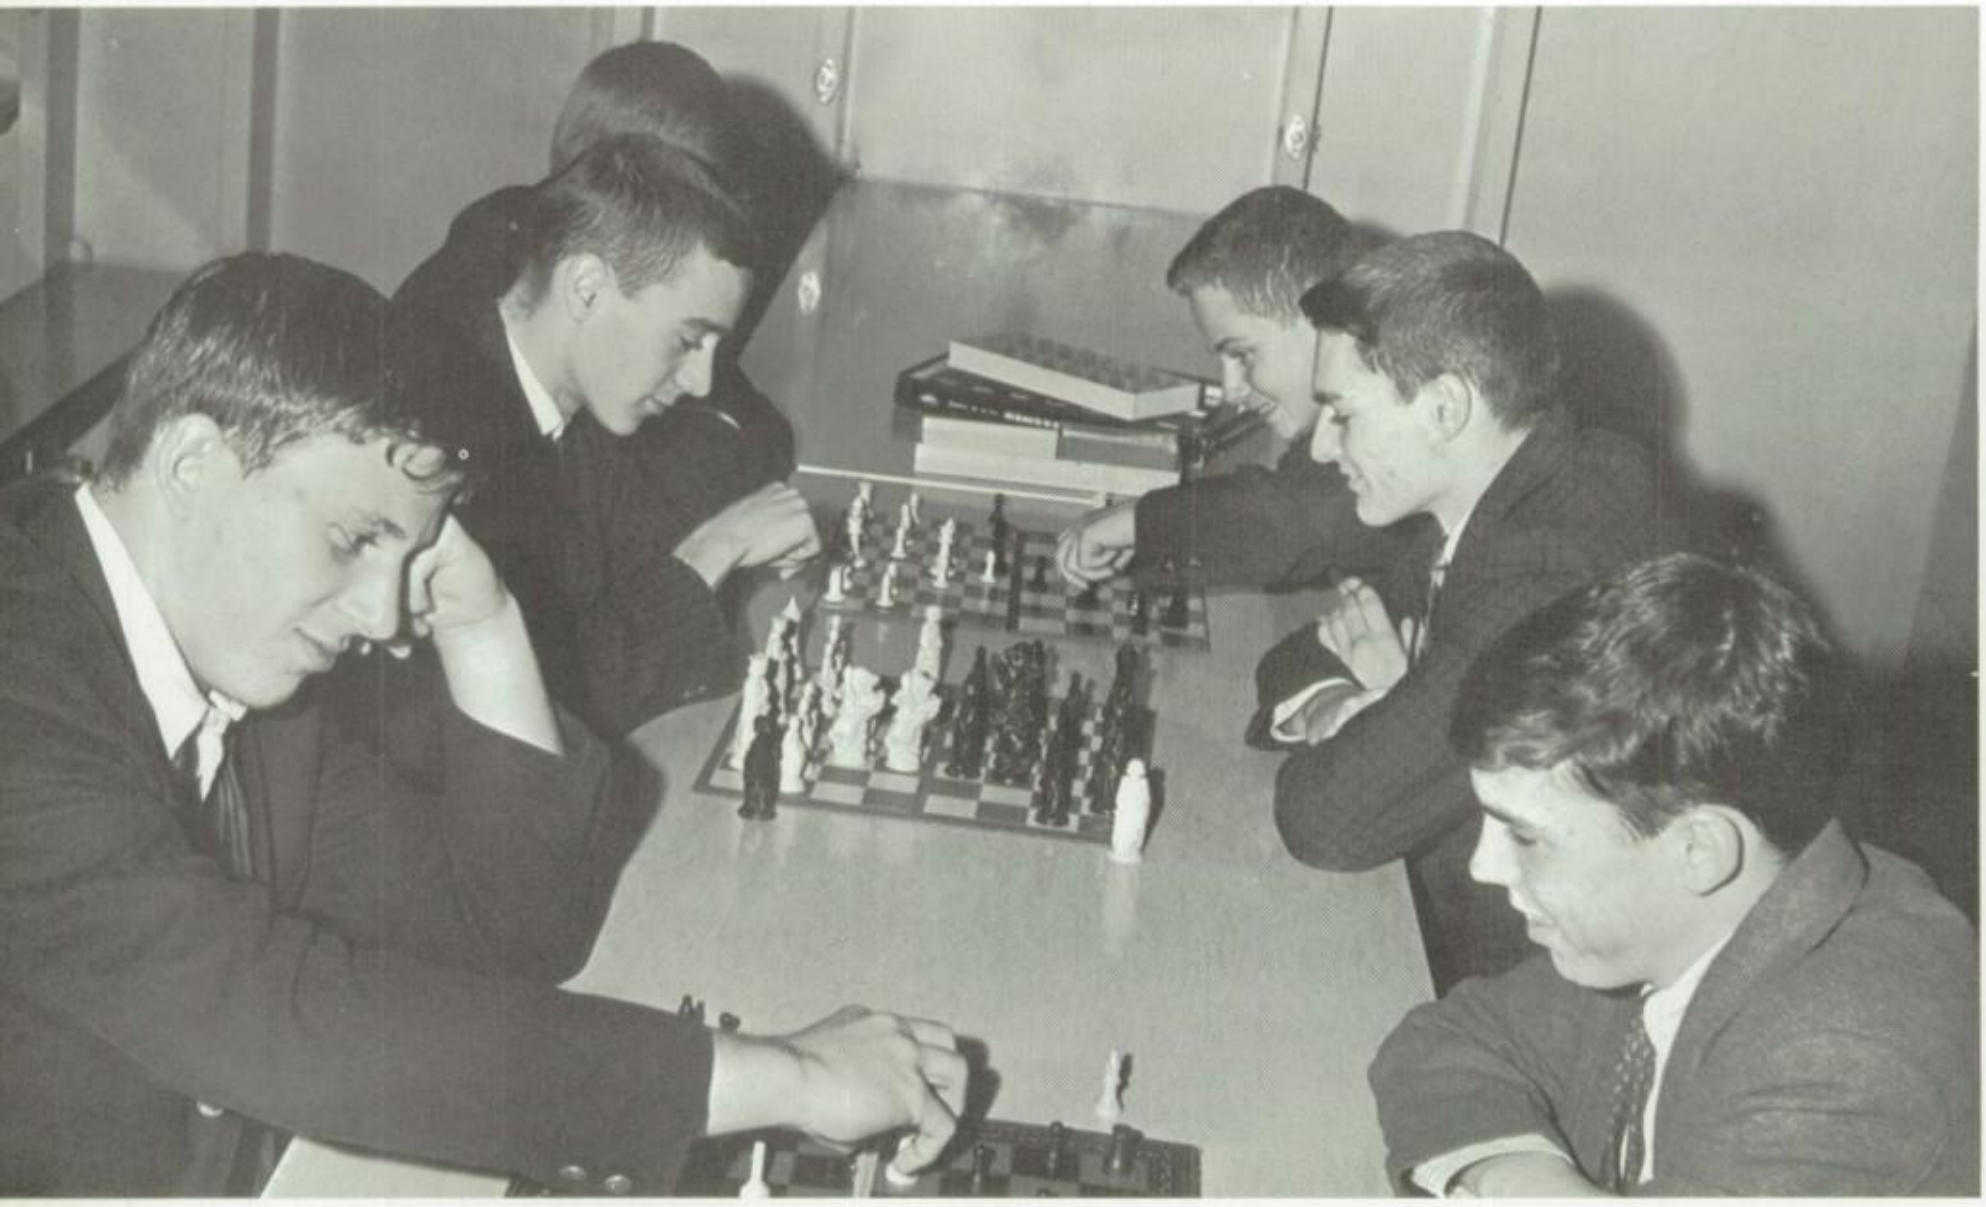
"March of the Tin Soldier," "Christmas Suite," and "Happy Christmas Holiday" were beautifully rendered by K. Savard, J. Votero, J. Daane, J. Arcuri, V. Tutino, members of the Concert Band. Each of these students anticipates performance in the Diocesean Concert.

Sister Marita Cecilia carefully instructs Patricia Vottero during a string instrument practice period. The orchestra, conducted by Mr. Roman Schuman, will play for our Spring Festival.

Suzanne Fithian diligently practices the violin. The orchestra has delighted many with their interpretations of various popular songs at school assemblies.

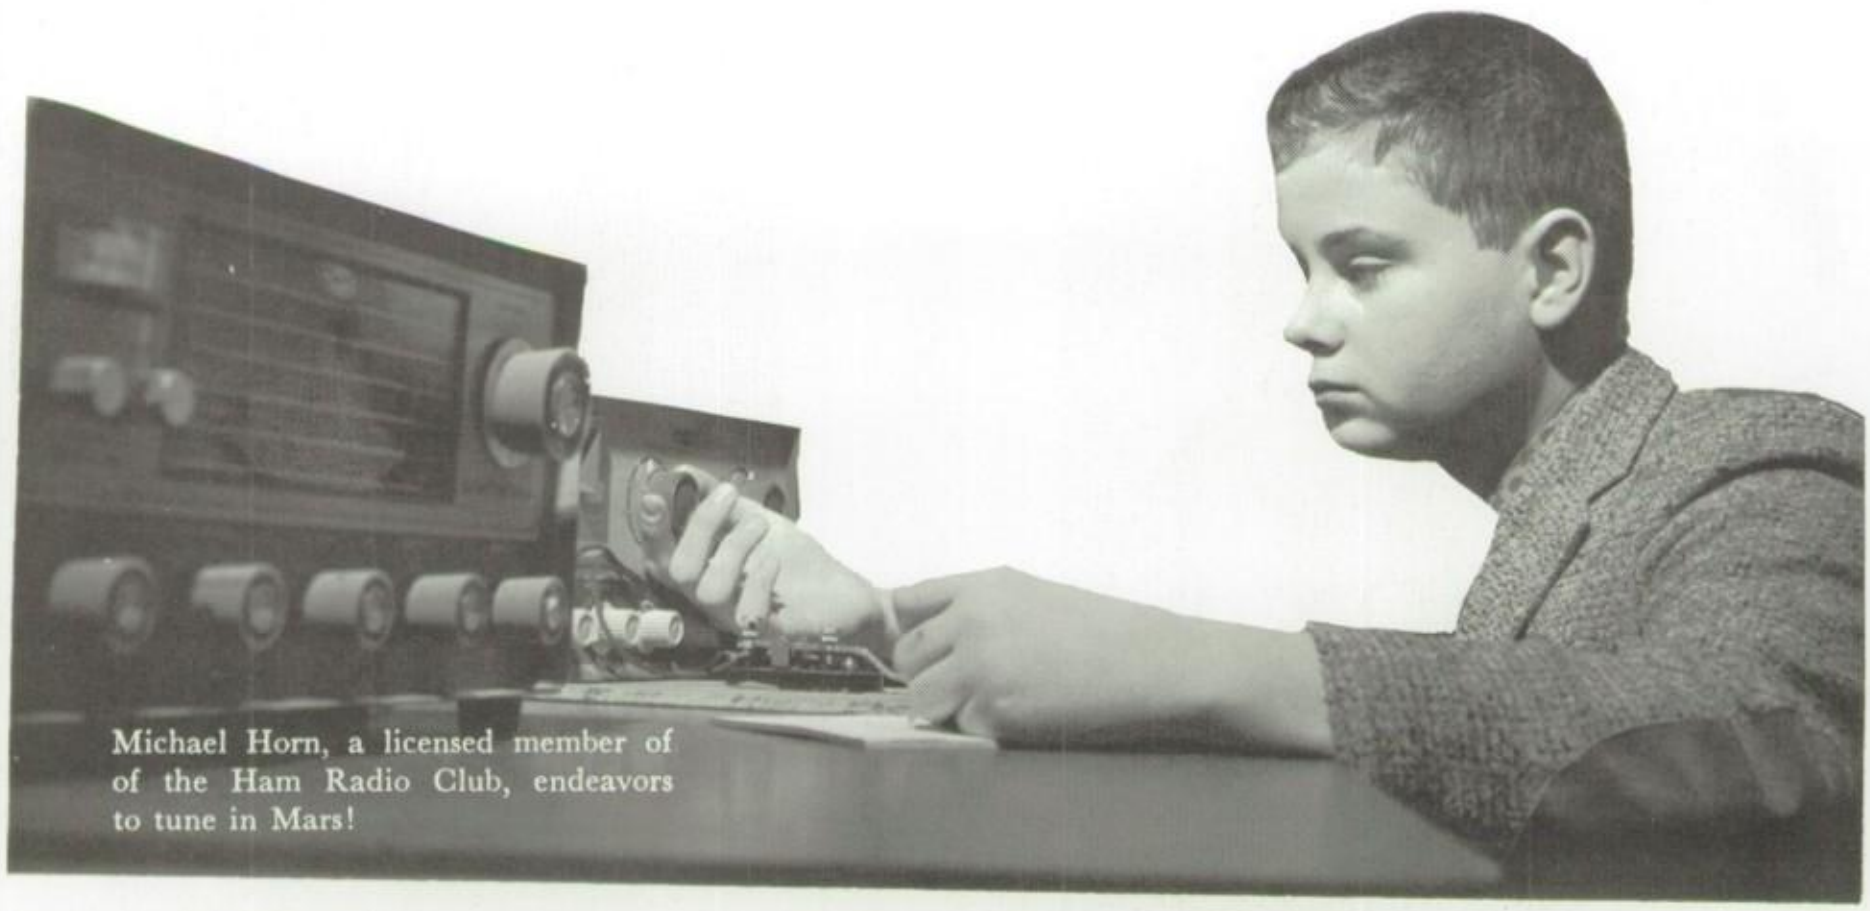
Mr. Rutchsky, pictured here with Elizabeth List and James Ewing, spoke to our students during the St. Cecilia Day Assembly of the various opportunities in York for people interested in music.

We here give tribute to our choir and in particular the Seniors. Most of the Seniors in the choir have participated in the Music-Department for four years. (Stephanie Steckler directing)



Quiet please! Y.C.'s intellectuals (?), Jack Rooney, Joe Gerber, John Dorsey, Mike Horn, Ronald Klunk, and Doc Scarborough, attempt to put each other's kings in check.

After-Class Leisure Profitably Spent



Michael Horn, a licensed member of of the Ham Radio Club, endeavors to tune in Mars!

Senior Library Aides render invaluable service to our school by keeping shelves in order and checking out books. They are: C. Glackin, C. Sansone, G. Zagurski, M. A. Zech, B. Grimek, S. Orlando, C. Allen, K. Galloway, B. Schwartzer, E. Pettigrew, D. Walters, S. Chronister, M. Seasholtz, M. Dimelow, and K. Ferro.

Activities Council members John Gierlach and Freida Stevenson post an advertisement for the Ladies Please Dance.

Sister Marguerite outlines the year's activities for some of the Red Cross volunteers.

PATRICK HOPWOOD
"Requiescat in Pace"
We cherish fond memories of Patrick Hopwood, our fellow classmate, who died in an automobile accident last July. Pat was a faithful Altar Boy in grade school and high school. St. Joseph's Explorer Post 61 ranked him "Eagle Scout." He was a member of York Catholic's football team and participated in the Intramural Program. All who knew Pat remember him as a loyal Catholic and true friend.
